Summary: Melodrama set in contemporary Ho Chi Minh City. Bich Tram is a Vietnamese American who has returned to HCM City to find the reason for her father's unexplained death. With the help of local journalist Le Quang she learns that her father, Dr. Tri, was the love object of a married woman. Tri was unable to respond to her because of his own marriage and she committed suicide. Tri was then sued by her family and he too committed suicide. As Bich Tram is finding all this out, she falls in love with Le Quang.
