

M2890 MATTERS OF THE HEART (USA, 12/30/90) [TV]

Credits: director, Michael Rhodes ; writers, Martin Tahse, Linda Bergman ; book (The country of the heart), Barbara Wersby.

Cast: Jane Seymour, Chris Cartin, James Stacy.

Summary: Melodrama set in contemporary Vermont. A talented young pianist (Gartin) is discouraged from a concert career by his father (a disabled Vietnam vet) until a world-renowned pianist (Seymour) moves into their small Vermont town. A mutual passion for music leads the young man and the older woman into a relationship as student and teacher and eventually into an unexpected love affair.

Rosenthal, David N. "TV review: 'Matters of the heart'" Chicago tribune (Dec 26, 1990), Tempo, p. 3.

Scott, Tony (Tone). "Matters of the heart" Variety 341 (Dec 24, 1990), p. 41.

Stewart, Susan. "'Matters of the heart' is a (slow) dose of gloom" Detroit free press (Dec 26, 1990), p. 6B.

Williams, Scott. "Powerful 'Matters of the heart'" Boston globe (Dec 26, 1990), Living, p. 34.