Summary: Melodrama set in contemporary Paris, Africa and South Vietnam.

Robert (Montand) is a French television news reporter who often travels abroad. Catherine (Girardot), his wife, knows he has affairs with other women. Robert meets and falls in love with Candice (Bergen), a young American model, and takes her on a trip to Kenya. When they return to France, Robert goes to Amsterdam to spend some time with Catherine, but Candice follows him there. Catherine discovers their affair and leaves Robert. Six months later a remorseful Robert breaks off his relationship with Candice. He is then sent to Vietnam where he is taken prisoner by the Viet Cong. After his release, he tries to reunite with Catherine.
