Lasallian Forum for Politics and Policy
Fall Schedule 2013
1st and 4th Amendments, Terrorism & Public Security

October 10 “Government Seizing Phone and E-Mail Records”
Karen Kaiser, Esq. Associate General Counsel, Associated Press, B.A. Univ. of Penn., J.D. Fordham. She handled the Department of Justice’s subpoena and seizure of journalists’ phone and e-mail records this past summer, and prior to joining AP she worked on the Valerie Plame CIA leak investigation. She will be introduced by Thomas Curley, ’70, former CEO Associated Press.
12:30-2:00 p.m., Holroyd Hall, Room 190

November 14 “Exposing Governmental Corruption”
William Marimow editor-in-chief of the Philadelphia Inquirer 2006-10 and 2012 to present, two time winner of Pulitzer Prize for exposing police corruption, former editor, The Baltimore Sun, former editor and vice-president for news National Public Radio, Nieman Fellow Harvard University.
12:30 -- 2:00 pm, Holroyd Hall, Room 190

November 21 “Issuing Warrants: Pursuing Terrorists”
Michael Cleary, Esq. currently with Philadelphia District Attorney’s Office, former military officer with terrorism experience as Legal Advisor to U.S. Embassy Iraq (2005), Civilian Military Task Force Bosnia (1998-99) and Intelligence Officer in Kuwait (1990-91), La Salle graduate 1970.
12:30 – 2:00 pm, Holroyd Hall, Room 190

For additional information on The Lasallian Forum for Politics and Policy contact Michael Boyle, Ph.D. (boylem@lasalle.edu) or Miguel Glatzer, Ph.D. (glatzer@lasalle.edu) of the Political Science Department La Salle University or Huntly Collins, M.A. (collinsh@lasalle.edu) of the Communication Department La Salle University.