The La Salle Ambassador Program is designed to promote La Salle University, its interests, goals, and traditions to students, parents, alumni and friends of the University. The Ambassadors will represent La Salle at university functions including alumni receptions, Homecoming, Family Weekend, Admissions events, and other special events as designated by the Executive Board.

If your department or area is hosting a special event and you would be interested in utilizing the help of the student ambassadors, please submit the enclosed request form to Box 809 at least three weeks in advance or contact us at extension 5042.

On behalf of the La Salle Ambassadors, many thanks for your support!

Sincerely,

Trey P. Ulrich
La Salle Ambassador Program Advisor

Political Communication & Civic Engagement Semester Events

Presentation by Kathleen Hall Jamieson, Ph.D.
The centerpiece of the semester will occur on Thursday, Oct. 7, at 12:45 p.m. in Hayman Hall with a presentation by Dr. Kathleen Hall Jamieson. The former dean of the Annenberg School at Penn, Jamieson is the country's foremost authority on presidential campaigns and elections and the author of several books on politics. She regularly appears in the national media and is also dynamite as a lecturer.

Dr. Jamieson will lecture on the topic: "The Demise of Fact in Political Debate." The lecture will come shortly after the first presidential debate and just before the second. Very likely her talk will include clips from the first debate as well as examples of political advertising.

Film Screenings
In addition to the lecture, the Communication Department will sponsor the showing of two films related to the theme. Again, we invite you & your students to attend. They will be shown in the Union Theater.

- TBA
  Wednesday September 22 at 4:00 p.m.
  Thursday, September 23 at 9:00 p.m.

- The Contender
  Tuesday, Oct. 19 at 4:00 p.m.
  Thursday, October 21 at 9:00 p.m.

* We are considering Control Room and Bullworth

Panel Discussion with La Salle Alum involved in Politics
On Thursday, October 28, in the Union Theater, the Communication & Political Science departments will cosponsor a panel discussion featuring La Salle alumni participating in American politics. The composition of the panel will be announced shortly.

Presentation by Jane Eisner
We also have arranged to have Philadelphia Inquirer columnist Jane Eisner make an appearance on campus. She was a Penn fellow last year and is very enthusiastic about getting students committed to civic engagement and politics. We’re attempting to arrange for her appearance in the early part of the semester to stimulate student interest and participation.

Voter Registration Drive  -- Sponsored by SGA -- Encourage your students to register to vote.

Additional Screenings for Politics & Civic Engagement Semester

USA Today Readership Program
Monday, August 16, from 1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m., the university will sponsor, with regional and national representatives of USA Today, a session to help all of us consider ways to increase our curricular, co-curricular, and extra-curricular uses of the USA Today Readership Program. This program lends itself to many possible uses to support the fall theme of politics & civic engagement.

The program is sponsored by Administrative Services and makes available, at no cost to our students, copies of USA Today, The New York Times, The Philadelphia Inquirer, and The Philadelphia Daily News five days per week throughout the academic year, in four central locations in the student residences and in the La Salle Union.

Dear Parent, Alumni, or friend of La Salle University,

The La Salle Collegian, the student run newspaper, is excited to return for the 2004-2005 academic year. We are under new leadership and return this year with a talented and motivated staff with hopes to make this year’s publication the best quality newspaper La Salle has had in recent memory. A Collegian subscription is just one way families can keep up to date with La Salle events and activities.

The Collegian offers subscriptions to anyone who would like one – students, family, alumni, faculty, administration. The cost for a one-year (projected 22 issues) of the Collegian is $22.00, which covers postage. Checks can be made payable to the Collegian and can be sent to:

La Salle Collegian
1900 W. Olney Avenue, Box 417
Philadelphia, PA 19141

Please include the following form along with your personal check. Sorry, we cannot accept cash or credit cards.

The Collegian thanks you in advance for your support and interest in our publication!

Sincerely,

Denise M. Maher
Collegian Managing Editor
