Faculty Senate—October 5, 2004

Present: Janice Beitz, David Cichowicz, Marianne Dainton, Linda Elliott, Eileen Giardino, Steve Longo, Sidney MacLeod, Janine Mariscotti, Lynn Miller, Marc Moreau, Richard Mshomba, Jackie Pastis, Elizabeth Paulin, Mark Ratkus, Stephen Smith, Scott Stickel, Jeannie Welsh, and Bonni H. Zetick

Excused: Gerald Ballough, Rich DiDio, Susan Borkowski

The meeting was called to order at 12:35 p.m. by Beth Paulin, President of the Faculty Senate.

Approval of minutes of meeting of September 9, 2004

These minutes were approved with minor amendments, by a vote of 14 in favor, 0 opposed, 2 abstentions (not present on September 9), and 2 who arrived after the vote was taken.

Executive Session

Ad Hoc Committee on Intellectual Property Rights

The Senate discussed the charge and composition of the Ad Hoc Committee on Intellectual Property Rights. The committee’s charge is to review the University’s current policies and procedures, determine the main questions that are of immediate concern, research what similarly-sized, like-mission institutions are doing, and make recommendations to the University regarding our own policies and procedures. The composition of the committee will be made up of faculty, administrators, and one student

Several questions were raised by the Senate: Is the Ad Hoc Committee a voting body? Is the Ad Hoc Committee exploratory, and if so how would a follow-up group be constituted? What would its duties be and what would it look like? (The suggestion was made that perhaps a follow-up group would resemble the way the Institutional Review Board is set up.)

The make-up of the committee was also discussed. The Senate expressed the view that the balance of the committee between faculty and administration may very well be important, and that this balance would best be achieved by four faculty being named to the committee, and one administrator currently slated to be a member being excused from membership. The role of the student proposed for membership was discussed, and it was suggested that a graduate student be named to the committee. It was suggested that the availability of legal expertise to the committee is also important.

After further discussion, four faculty members were suggested for this committee, along with several back-ups. These names were approved by a vote of 18 to 0 opposed and 0 abstentions. The Chair of the Committee on Committees will be contacting these faculty members to determine their ability and willingness to serve.

The Academic Affairs Committee of the Senate was charged with following the work of the Ad Hoc Committee, and making periodic reports to the Senate.

Ad Hoc Committee – Student Evaluations

The charge to this committee is to make recommendations for updating and improving the current evaluation form.

After discussing previous efforts to revise the evaluation forms, the reasons for delays, and the high level of expertise among the faculty, four faculty were suggested for this committee. These names were approved 13-0-1.

The Committee will be asked to make a report at the December 3, 2004 Faculty Senate, and to work toward a final draft by the end of the spring, 2005 semester.

University Committee Appointments

The names of faculty members were submitted for service on the Fellowships, Food Service, and Grievance Committees.

These names were approved 13-0-1.

End of Executive Session

Committee for the Distinguished Service Award and the Distinguished Scholar Award

Jackie Pastis advised the Senators of the need to draft, review, and finalize policies and procedures for these awards. The Committee is proposing that nominations would be made in January, and selections by May. Beth asked that the Committee come back to the Senate with a proposal for the November 4, 2004 Faculty Senate meeting.

University Budgeting Process

Beth advised that she and Jeanne Welsh, Chair of the Faculty Affairs Planning Committee, have been invited to participate in a meeting of the President’s Cabinet tomorrow that will discuss the relationship between the Strategic Plan and the budgeting process as well as the setting of budget priorities. This topic was raised in a meeting with the Provost and the Faculty Senate Executive Committee on September 27, 2004. Beth has since met with the Council of Deans on this same issue. Beth asked the Senators to give thought to and be prepared at a future meeting of the Faculty Senate to identify budget priorities from the perspective of faculty. The intent is to work with administrators to make suggestions for enhancing how the budgeting process reflects the strategic goals of the University.

Next Meeting

The next meeting of the Faculty Senate will be November 4, 2004, from 12:30-1:50 p.m. The meeting adjourned at 1:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Bonni H. Zetick
Secretary, Faculty Senate
