ANNOUNCING TRAINING TIPS

A message about training and life-long learning from the Human Resources Department.

"Outstanding leaders go out of the way to boost the self-esteem of their personnel. If people believe in themselves, it's amazing what they can accomplish."

Assistant Professor

The Department of Psychology at La Salle University is opening an immediate search for one or more tenure-track positions at the rank of Assistant Professor to begin in Fall 2005.

If appropriate candidates are not found, we would consider offering a one-year appointment for the 2005-2006 academic year, with an on-going search to fill the position for the 2006-2007 academic year.

Primary responsibilities include teaching, advising, clinical supervision, development of a program of personal scholarship, and supervision of clinical dissertations in our APA accredited Psy.D. Program in Clinical Psychology, as well as teaching and mentoring students in our undergraduate program. Our Psy.D. Program is committed to the evidence-based practice of clinical psychology and stresses the integration of clinical science and clinical practice throughout the curriculum.

The successful candidate will have a defined specialty within clinical psychology, preferably in either adult anxiety/trauma related disorders, child-adolescent psychopathology and treatment, or forensic psychology, and will be able to supervise clinical and research activities within that specialty. Candidates must hold a doctoral degree in clinical psychology from an APA accredited program, be licensed or license-eligible in Pennsylvania, and have relevant clinical, research, and teaching experience. We are committed to racial, cultural, and gender diversity among our faculty and student body.

Send application letter, statements of clinical and research interests, CV, official graduate transcripts, reprints, and three letters of recommendation to:

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position(s) are filled. Applications from women and minorities are encouraged.
Procedures for Submitting Items for Inclusion in the Campus News

All information must be submitted electronically as text by selecting a web form located in the Campus News channel in the mylasalle portal (located in the Staff Services Tab).

- Accompanying graphics may be submitted separately in the following manner:
  - via e-mail to the campusnews@lasalle.edu. The article title must be included in the subject line of the e-mail.
  - via floppy disk or CD
  - will be limited to one per article, unless a specific need for additional graphics is articulated. (EX: If La Salle and another organization partner for an event, the logos of both La Salle and the partnering organization would certainly be permissible.)

- PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING: Graphics submitted may be resized to fit the document layout. Logos, signatures, and other graphics that are likely to used frequently can be kept on file for future use. Please add a comment to this effect when you submit your graphic.

If you have any questions or need assistance...

We realize that the community is being asked to work a bit differently in terms of submitting articles to be included in the Campus News.

By supplying standard web forms for your use, we are attempting to create efficient processes that will make it easier for you to submit articles. For example, employment postings will be automatically routed to the appropriate individuals in Human Resources for review prior to being sent to the Campus News.

If you need assistance with submissions, please contact Jim Sell at 215-991-3615 or jsell@lasalle.edu
