2006-07 University Budget

Matthew McManness, Vice President for Business Affairs, spoke to the Senate regarding the 2006-07 University Budget. Prior to discussing the budget, Mr. McManness spoke briefly about the ongoing assessment process that he is following to learn about the University and particularly customer service, financial resources, strategic planning, human resources, public safety, and capital development.

In regard to the 2006-7 University budget, Mr. McManness stated that challenges facing the University include lower than expected enrollment of the class of 2009, which will have ramifications for three additional years, and also a lower than expected occupancy of University housing, as well as continued legal costs.

A 3.8 % increase in salary has been included in the budget, at a cost of $ 1.6 million. This covers part-time as well as fulltime faculty. The impact of increases in benefits is $ 1,050,000. Capital projects included in the 2006-7 University budget are the Wister boiler and an update of the server room.

Senators engaged in a discussion with Mr. McManness that raised questions such as the percentage of resources that are allocated for faculty salaries. The Vice President said that 68 % of the total budget is allocated for academic and instructional costs. Senators raised questions about the process to effectively engage in dialogue regarding faculty compensation prior to the announcement of the increase in salary, such as the 3.8 % amount this year. The spirit expressed by Senators was an earnest desire to engage in meaningful timely discussions with decision-makers in order to have an impact upon the allocation of University resources devoted to faculty compensation in the upcoming University budget.

There was also a request from a Senator that the issue of permitting seventeen or eighteen credits for all students in the base tuition be put on or kept on the table for further discussion. President Paulin thanked the vice president for attending this meeting and briefing the Senators on the University budget.

Proposal to Revise the Current Sabbatical Program

There was insufficient time to discuss the proposal so a special meeting will be called for this purpose.

Marianne Dainton gave a report for the Election Committee. The total number of ballots cast was 134.

The next Meeting of the Faculty Senate is scheduled for April 25, from 12:30 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. in the McShain Board Room, Union.
