Rhododendrons in full bloom along the walkway to the Peale House
Beginning today, those who are authorized to order office supplies online may begin entering departmental orders. Office Depot has assigned a new temporary password to access your accounts. Please call either Matt Morace or myself on x1863 for the password when you are ready to order. You will be able to change the temporary password when you enter the website.

We will continue to update our Central Office Supplies Inventory list on a monthly basis. Be sure to check the central inventory before placing your order online.

Access to the Central Inventory List:
In myLaSalle, click on Resources and Services, Documents & Forms. Search for Office Supplies Inventory. Click once to open the Inventory List.
When you find the item(s) you are looking for, please call the department contact to request the item(s) you require.

If you have not provided us with your current supplies list for June, please be sure to send it to Matt Morace morace02@lasalle.edu to insure that your information is included in the Central Inventory.

Let's continue to work together to make our list a reliable and efficient resource for all of us as we move forward through the new Fiscal Year! Thank you!
