To the Evaluator: The above-named student is applying to study abroad at:

Institution_____
City, Nation

_____ semester 20__, and has listed you as a reference. La Salle University policy requires all students applying for study abroad to obtain letters of recommendation from two University faculty members testifying to the applicant's intellectual and emotional readiness for study abroad. The Study Abroad office appreciates a frank appraisal on your part of the applicant, particularly with regard to the applicant's ability to successfully carry out studies in a foreign environment.

Thank you for assisting the Study Abroad Team in the evaluation and placement of this student!

- If the applicant has waived the rights (see above) to review this reference, it will be kept confidential. If not, the applicant has a right to request access to it.
- Please use extra sheets if more space is needed.
- This two-page form must be returned, in its entirety, to the Multicultural and International Center in a signature-sealed envelope.
