House Rules:

The La Salle University Facebook page was created for alumni, students, parents, and other Explorers to learn about, enjoy, and share the great things happening here.

In the spirit of sharing information, perspectives, and La Salle pride, we encourage you to like, comment on, and share our posts while being respectful of other users.

La Salle reserves the right to delete user comments or recommendations which are abusive, threatening, factually-inaccurate, or contain offensive language. Posts that are off-topic or are unsolicited advertisements or promotions will also be deleted. Individuals who do not follow the House Rules may be banned from posting.
