

La Salle's Second TABA Cohort: Spring 2020

The second cluster of TABA courses will be led by faculty members Rosemary Barbera, Ph.D. (Social Work), Sara Shuman, Ph.D. (Public Health), and Karen Reardon, Ph.D. (Management and Leadership).

TABA Cluster Theme: Racial Justice

- FYS 130 Implications of Racism: Policy & Resistance (Barbera)
- FYS 130 So You Think You Want to Change the World (Reardon)
- PHLT 472 A Public Health Perspective of the Juvenile Justice System in the United States (Shuman)

Possible Future Additional Department/Program Relevance:

- Biology, Sociology, English, History, Psychology, Leadership and Global Understanding, Chemistry, Philosophy, Nutrition, Political Science, Criminal Justice, D'ART, Marketing, Economics, Education, Nursing, others?

Rosemary Barbera, Ph.D.
Social Work

Sara Shuman, Ph.D.
Public Health

Karen Reardon, JD, Ph.D.
Management &
Leadership