School of Professional and Continuing Studies (CPACS) graduate program in:

Instructional Technology Management

Careers in ITM
Poll Question

What type of job would you be targeting in the Information Technology Management field?

a. Instructional Design
b. eLearning design and development
c. Leadership role
d. Social learning
e. Other [put in chat your choice]
What opportunities do you see for careers in Instructional Technology Management?
How can someone take advantage of these opportunities?
What pitfalls might someone experience on the journey to realize a career opportunity?
How do you figure out who you are & what you want?
How do you conquer your fears & follow your intuition, spirit & passion?
How do you suggest expanding yourself to be able to take on the right work?
How do you find new opportunities?
What is/was your biggest fear about changing careers?

& what do you think might motivate you to take action?
How do I get experience in such a new & evolving field?
Finding a new career requires:
1. Disengagement
2. Disidentification
3. Disorientation
4. Letting Go
5. Reengagement
6. Discovery
7. Clarity
8. Integration

http://www.forbes.com/sites/kathycaprino
To switch careers effectively and achieve a positive outcome, you need four things:

clarity, courage, confidence, & competence

http://www.forbes.com/sites/kathycaprino
What burning questions do you have about careers in Instructional Technology Management?
Contact:

Bobbe Baggio, PhD
Director, Graduate Program in
Instructional Technology Management
College of Professional & Continuing Studies
LaSalle University
215-500-3166 (o)
610-217-8022 (m)
baggio@lasalle.edu
Next Lunch & Learn Sessions

- Promoting Brilliant Ideas: Influencing Stakeholders To Endorse Outside-the-Box Recommendations
  Tuesday, November 12, 2013
  Dr. Catherine Lombardozzi,
  Learning 4 Learning Professionals

- Is ADDIE dead? And what is next? SAM, RPD?
  Tuesday, December 10, 2013
  Dr. Robyn Defelice
  Dishing Design.com