Vice President for Student Affairs/ Dean of Students

La Salle University is seeking applications and nominations for the position of Vice President for Student Affairs/Dean of Students. The Vice President has responsibility for a dynamic, well managed Division of Student Affairs. He/she will report directly to the President and will actively participate as a member of the President’s team. He/she also will have frequent interaction with the Provost and Deans in a team-oriented management model that emphasizes learning in all aspects of a student’s experience.

Responsibilities and Challenges:

The Vice President will provide strong leadership for the senior managers of Student Affairs, including the Senior Associate Dean of Students for Community Development (Residential Life), the Associate Deans of Students for University Life and for Counseling and Student Health Services, and the Directors of Administrative Services and University Ministry and Service.

The Vice President will be able to personally and actively contribute to the Catholic and Lasallian Mission of the University and lead the Division to do the same, especially as it is outlined in the University’s new strategic plan for 2009-2013, THE WILL TO EXCEL. He/she will lead in a collaborative, collegial manner and will be a strong advocate for student and student community needs.

The Vice President will be knowledgeable of student affairs and its various components, some of which are new student orientation; the student disciplinary process; student activities, organizations and resident housing; commuter and off-campus programming; career services, counseling and health programs; multicultural services and event programming; and ministry initiatives. The Vice President will have the skills to administer a student affairs budget, recruit, manage and supervise student affairs professionals, and manage change in a University environment.

To apply, please send a letter of interest, current CV, salary history, and names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three professional references to the following:

Director, Academic Enrichment Program (AEP)

The La Salle University Department of Learning Support Services, under the auspices of the Provost, is seeking to fill the position Director, Academic Enrichment Program (AEP). This is a full-time, 12-month position reporting to the Director of Learning Support Services.

The Academic Enrichment Program serves approximately 120 new, conditionally admitted students each year through classes, services, and related programming that strives to strengthen the students’ study and success strategies, critical reading, thinking and reasoning ability, writing ability, verbal/communication skills, and collaboration skills.

The Director of the program is charged with developing and implementing a long-term vision and plan for the AEP that meets student needs and complements the mission and goals of the University. The Director is responsible for assuring the academic progress of all AEP students and has specific responsibility for the ongoing development and management of the AEP bridge program; for the coordination and delivery of appropriate academic support services, including tutoring, advising and counseling; for the design and assessment of developmental courses and related activities, and for the creation of a team of teachers committed to the goals of the program.

The successful candidate will be cognizant of the most current research and best practices in developmental education and/or academic literacy, and must care deeply about the well-being of the students he/she will serve. Candidates must hold a minimum of a master’s degree in a related subject. A Ph.D./Ed.D. is preferred along with five years of increasingly responsible experience in higher education, specifically in the field of developmental education and/or literacy. Other qualifications include excellent written, verbal, and interpersonal skills; strong organizational and technical skills; and the ability to work both independently and as part of a team. College-level teaching and advising experience is preferred, as is creativity and good humor.

To apply, please send a letter of interest, current résumé, salary history, and names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three professional references to the following:
