An Invitation to Participate in a Lasallian Formation Program

Many who work in a Lasallian ministry have a desire to learn more about the Lasallian charism: the history of the founding of the Christian Brothers congregation, the distinctive qualities of Lasallian spirituality and pedagogy, and the future of the Lasallian educational movement.

The Philadelphia Area Lasallian Ministries (PALM) will sponsor a program for Lasallians in the area. The program, An Introduction to the Lasallian Charism (ILC), is an opportunity to join with other Lasallians in exploring and strengthening relationships and enriching their work and personal lives.

What is the ILC?

The ILC consists of three seminars, each dealing with a different aspect of the charism. The material will be presented chronologically. It begins with an examination of the past, moves to a discussion of the present, and concludes with a consideration of the future.

Who are the presenters?

Seminar I: The Founding Story led by Br. Brian Henderson, Mike Wisniewski and Pat Foley
Seminar II: Present Realities led by Br. Kevin Dalmasse and Br. Miguel Campos
Seminar III: The Future led by Jim Logan, Nick Coggins, Dan Rhoton, Teresa Diamond, and Ray Ricci

When and Where?

Seminar I will be held on Saturday, January 30
Seminar II will be held on Saturday, April 17
Seminar III will be held on Saturday, May 22
Seminar I and II will be held on La Salle University’s campus. The location for Seminar III will be announced later.
All seminars run from 9:00 AM to 2 PM. Lunch will be provided.
There is no charge for the seminars.

Why participate?

As Lasallians, we contribute to the mission of our various ministries. To do so requires an understanding of the charism. The ILC will give a basic introduction to the Founder and the Lasallian educational mission, address the role of lay partners and the relevance of Lasallian values in our professional and personal lives. The ILC will give an opportunity to explore the Lasallian spiritual heritage in adult faith development.

Who should attend?

Those interested in an introductory exploration of the charism or who may be interested in participating in other formation programs.

For more information, contact either Mike Wisniewski or Ray Ricci. To register, complete the form on the reverse side of this announcement by January 5, 2010.
