What Role Does Land Play in Economic Justice?

TIMOTHY L. HIGHLEY, PH.D.,
Math and Computer Science Department

Wednesday, March 3, 3:00 p.m.
Holroyd Lobby (FREE FOOD)

Traditionally, land, capital, and labor have been considered the leading factors in production but is land still important in modern times? Is there anything in the modern world that serves the same role that land does in the traditional model of production? Is access to land even an important factor in economic justice or relevant in contemporary society?

We'll explore these questions and more in an effort to define economic justice and better understand the complex issues of land ownership and labor impacting what society considers "just".

Explorer Cafés are open to all.

ARJIA RINPOCHE:
SURVIVING THE DRAGON

Tuesday, March 16, 2010
12:30–1:45 p.m., La Salle Union, Music Room

Rinpoche will discuss his life in the People’s Republic of China, the Cultural Revolution, Buddhism in China, his decision to escape, and his book, Surviving the Dragon, Rodale Press, 2010 (book-signing to follow).

The lecture is co-sponsored with the Religion and History departments.

Born in Eastern Tibet in 1950, Arjia Rinpoche is one of the most prominent teachers of Tibetan Buddhism today. He became Abbot of Kumbum Monastery when he was recognized as a reincarnate lama at the age of 2. Following the Cultural Revolution, he was reinstated in 1979 as Abbot of Kumbum and advanced in the People’s Republic of China governmental hierarchy to become Vice-Chairman of the Chinese National Buddhist Association. In 1988, he was about to become its leader. In a crisis of conscience, he escaped from Beijing to Guatemala and, with the help of the Dalai Lama, sought asylum in the United States.

BROTHER ROUSSEAU JUSTICE AWARD

The Project on Justice in Society
The Fourth Annual

Each year The Project on Justice in Society honors a faculty or staff member who is committed to creating a more just world with the Rousseau Award. The honoree is given a plaque and there is a reception in the Chapel during Heritage Week.

Full time La Salle University faculty or staff may be nominated by any full time employee or student of La Salle University.

To nominate someone please send a letter that explains, in as much detail as possible, the reasons why this individual should be considered for this honor. The letter should specifically address how the nominated individual:

- has worked to develop a society in which no one is marginalized.
- has worked effectively to change those social situations, public attitudes, structures, or policies which cause people to be excluded, impoverished, or disempowered.
- has demonstrated an attitude of respect for the dignity of all people, but especially those who suffer from poverty and injustice.

Nominations are due by March 8, 2010.

Faculty Senate Meeting
February 9, 2010

Excused:  M. Allen, D. Falcone, M. McGuinness, L. Texter, J. Volpe

Executive Session
There was no Executive Session.

Approval of Minutes
The minutes of the meeting of January 28, 2010 were approved by a vote of 12-0-1.

Charge of the University Curriculum Committee
This item was tabled until the President can consult with the Provost.

Discussion on the Third Year Review Policy
Dr. Michael Smith presented a draft of “Pre-tenure review issues”, dated December, 2009, for continued discussion. Specific points discussed at this meeting included mentoring of tenure-track faculty, follow-up to the review through the chair and Dean, the process by which written communication is made available to the candidate following the review, a requirement that a minimum of four semesters should be completed before the review would take place, and the outcome of the review process.

The document will now go back to the Faculty Senate Academic and Faculty Affairs Committee for further revision before coming back to the full Senate. Following that, the document will go back to the Council of Deans and the Provost for further discussion of these points and others. No vote was taken on the document at this time.

Update on Core Curriculum Review Process
President Welsh presented a draft of “University General Education Process”, which lays out a process for reviewing the core curriculum. The draft process consists of an advisory group, chaired by the provost, and composed of the academic deans, a representative from Student Affairs, the three school curriculum committee chairs, the University Curriculum Committee Chair, and the President of the Faculty Senate and two other Senators. A general education taskforce would also be created, composed of faculty representatives selected by the Faculty Senate, upon several recommendations from the Academic Deans, as well as at-large faculty members selected by the Senate, and a chair, recommended by the Advisory Group and confirmed by the Senate. These two groups would check in with each other periodically to assure timely communication and collaboration. Discussion was deferred due to lack of time.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:50 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted by
Bonni H. Zetick, Secretary

Special Collections Librarian (part-time)

The Connelly Library seeks a Special Collections Librarian (part-time) beginning immediately and continuing at least through FY 2010-2011. Reporting to the Director of Library Services and in close collaboration with the Media & Digital Services Librarian, this professional position carries faculty status but not rank, is non-tenure track, and is currently non-exempt. This position would be appointed on the basis of a 15 or 20 hour per week schedule that would be flexible with the potential to become full-time in the future.

Duties and Responsibilities include the following:

- assisting in the management of the Department of Special Collections (DSC);
- implementing policies related to developing, organizing, preserving, and interpreting the six rare book and manuscript collections that constitute the DSC;
- initiating outreach to the University community and wider audiences to create interest and support in La Salle’s distinctive collections;
- promoting the use of the collections by facilitating intellectual and digital access with particular effort directed to close collaboration with the Digital Services Librarian in planning and implementing projects to enhance the visibility and curricular utility of Special Collections resources. This collaboration will include planning for and creating digital content suitable for open source software like D Space or proprietary tools like ContentDM.

An ALA-accredited MLS or equivalent or an appropriate academic credential is required. Strong consideration will be given to those with both an MLS and a second post-baccalaureate academic degree or appropriate doctorate. Academic training in American history, the Vietnam War era, and biblical literature will be accorded special attention. A reading knowledge of Latin is desirable. Candidates should have a minimum of 3 years’ appropriate experience. Candidate must demonstrate knowledge of the principles governing the scholarly use of special collections and of preservation, and of the processing, indexing, cataloging, bibliographic control, and the history of rare books, mss., and archival collections. Candidate must demonstrate knowledge of digital formats, digital imaging, delivery, storage, and standards such as XML, DAC, EAD, and Dublin Core, and a grounding in digitization connected to appropriate metadata schemes and NISO standards. Preference will be given to candidates with evidence of scholarship and professional activity, with excellent oral and written communications skills. Experience with grant writing is desirable.

Individuals that wish to be considered should forward a cover letter, copy of résumé, and the names of three professional references. Electronic submission of application documents is strongly encouraged. For more details on this position or to submit your cover letter, résumé, and other required information, please contact
