Early Signs of Spring
March 15, 2010

Dear La Salle Students and Parents:

As we approach the end of the academic year, we at La Salle will remember this year as one of both tremendous challenges and landmark accomplishments. Difficult economic times for our nation and for all of us have made it necessary for institutions, individuals, and families to reassess our priorities and to make adjustments and hard choices. At the University, we instituted a variety of successful measures to end the last fiscal year in a positive position. I am grateful to our dedicated faculty and administrative staff for their understanding and sacrifices during these trying times. Because of them, we have been able to provide the high-quality education for which La Salle is known.

For you, our students and families, the loss of employment, homes, and health-care benefits often seems to put the dream of a private college education out of reach. One result of the economic situation that we have seen is an unprecedented need for additional financial aid for our students. Accordingly, La Salle has stepped up and made more financial aid available.

Despite budgetary challenges, we completed two major projects in our campus expansion and development initiative this year: The opening of The Fresh Grocer supermarket was the culmination of retail development in The Shoppes at La Salle, the shopping center on campus. Not only is this a convenience for the La Salle community, but it also is a blessing for our neighbors, as it is the first supermarket in this neighborhood for more than 40 years.

The second landmark accomplishment this year was the opening of the new Holroyd Hall, featuring the Hugh and Nancy Devlin Center for Science and Technology. This facility has brought joy and excitement to the campus community. The beautifully designed, well-built, well-equipped, and environmentally friendly Holroyd Hall has become an inspiration and magnet for a range of faculty- and student-led interdisciplinary programs.

Now, we look ahead to next year with the goals of prudent use of our resources to support a quality educational experience for our students and of continued sensitivity to the financial challenges faced by our students and families. It is in this context that I am sharing with you the University’s tuition and fee schedule for the 2010-2011 academic year. The tuition increase for the next academic year is our lowest percentage annual increase in nearly 20 years.

I can assure you that a La Salle education continues to be well worth the investment. We continue to be inspired by St. John Baptist de La Salle, the founder of the Christian Brothers and the patron saint of teachers, and are shaped by Catholic and Lasallian values. La Salle’s reputation is built on excellence in teaching and learning, personal attention, a strong sense of community, and a global perspective.

Thank you for the confidence you have placed in us and for your decision to be part of the future of La Salle University.

Sincerely,

Michael J. McGinniss, F.S.C.

PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST:
A JUST PEACE OR JUST ANY PEACE?

Featuring Hanan Ashrawi, Ph.D.
Moderator: Edward Turzanski, Senior Fellow, Foreign Policy Research Institute
Student Moderators: Claire Fisher, ’12 (Economics/Political Science), Kyle Simons, ’10 (Philosophy/German)
Thursday, March 25, 2010
12:30–2 p.m., Dan Rodden Theatre

The lecture is supported by the Theodore E. Morrow Memorial Fund, the Fulbright Association of Philadelphia/Delaware Valley, and the Office of the Provost and co-sponsored with the Multicultural and International Center.

Theodore Eggleston Morrow (1929–2004) was a linguist, translator, and biblical scholar.
Theodore E. Morrow Memorial Fund is dedicated to promoting intercultural and interreligious dialogue and advancing belief in the inherent dignity and common purpose of all human life.

Hanan Ashrawi, Ph.D., will discuss her distinguished work for Palestinian national rights. Ashrawi is the Diane Tameri Gobhag Fellow in Middle Eastern Studies at the James A. Baker III Institute for Public Policy at Rice University. Ashrawi was official spokeswoman for the Palestinian delegation to the Middle East peace process during the 1991 Madrid peace conference. She was appointed the Palestinian Authority Minister of Higher Education and Research in 1996, and she was elected in 2006 to the Palestinian Legislative Council and in 2008 to the Executive Committee of the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO). She founded and serves on the executive committees of the Palestinian Initiative for the Promotion of Global Dialogue and Democracy and the National Coalition for Accountability and Integrity. Ashrawi is the recipient of the 2005 Mahatma Gandhi International Award for Peace and Reconciliation, the 2003 Sydney Peace Prize, and the 2002 Olof Palme Prize. Her book, This Side of Peace (Simon & Schuster, 1995), earned worldwide recognition.

MEMORANDUM

Date: March 15, 2010

To: To All Eligible Faculty

From: Bro. John McGoldrick
Assistant Provost

Subject: Lindback Award Nominations

Since 1961, a generous award from the Christian R. and Mary F. Lindback Foundation has enabled La Salle to recognize excellence in teaching by members of its full-time faculty. The award is presented to a faculty member whose teaching is characterized by superior knowledge of the subject matter, vitality and inspiration in its presentation in class, and devotion to helping students realize their potential.

Nominations for the award are invited from members of the full-time faculty and students in all divisions and programs of the University. The final selection from those nominations is made by a committee composed of the Provost; the Deans of Arts and Sciences, Business, and Nursing and Health Sciences; the President of the Faculty Senate; and the Vice President for Academic Affairs of the Students’ Government Association.

The award is presented at the annual Commencement Ceremonies in May.

This announcement has been e-mailed to all faculty members in the past few days, along with a list of eligible faculty members and a nominating ballot. This ballot can be completed, printed, signed, and then delivered to Dr. Mary Jeanne Welsh (Campus Box 332). If you prefer, printed versions of the ballot and eligibility list are available in the Provost’s Office.

The deadline for nominations this year is Monday, March 29, 2010.

Thank you.
The Lasallian Distinguished Educator Award 2010-11

The Lasallian Distinguished Educator Award is given annually to honor the men and women who have put into practice St. La Salle’s vision of committing oneself to the real needs of students. Each year, Lasallian schools across the nation are invited to name honorees and in this way preserve the memory of the Founder and work of The Institute.

The Lasallian Distinguished Educator Award Review Committee invites the campus community to submit nominations for the 2010 award. All faculty, staff and administrators are eligible for consideration.

In the past, where possible, La Salle has named honorees whose work reflects the annual theme proposed by the Regional Education Board (REB) of the Christian Brothers Conference. This year, the REB’s theme for the award is to honor those who have demonstrated “innovation in the teaching of science and technology.” To be clear, though, the University is not hidebound in considering nominees using only the REB’s theme. We gladly welcome nominations of those whom you feel meet the qualifications for the award as described on the reverse side of this announcement. A statement in support of the candidate should accompany the nomination.

I ask that you submit nominations to me by April 5th either via campus mail (box 801) or via e-mail. Should you have any questions regarding this award, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you,

Ray Ricci

The Lasallian Distinguished Educator Award

The Lasallian Distinguished Educator Award is given annually to honor the life, the vision, and ideals of St. John Baptist De La Salle, the namesake of the University, the founder of the Christian Brothers, and the patron saint of teachers.

The award is given to those who exhibit in their daily lives a commitment to Lasallian priorities and traditions: the paramount importance of teaching in a values framework; of working together to build genuine community; of service and sensitivity to the needs of others particularly the poor and marginalized; of demonstrating respect for the uniqueness of the individual student. This award recognizes those who have opened their hearts and minds to these ideals and devoted themselves to this work.

Award winners build others up and encourage the heart. They teach by example. By doing so, they help colleagues and students experience the University’s heritage and its distinctive Lasallian character. To paraphrase the words of St. La Salle, they “put into practice what we want our students to believe.” As a result, they continue to give life to the values that have animated and sustained the University.

The Lasallian Distinguished Educator Award is open to all faculty, staff and administrators. Previous honorees are not eligible for consideration.

Executive Session
The Senate unanimously approved two committee appointments to fill vacancies.

Approval of Minutes
The minutes of the meeting of February 9, 2010, with one revision, were approved by a vote of 12-0-3.

Update on Core Curriculum Review Process
President Welsh presented a draft of “University General Education Process”, which lays out a process for reviewing the core curriculum. After much discussion, the Senate decided to draft an alternative proposal. Dr. Moreau, Dr. Falcone, and Professor McCoey agreed to serve on a sub-committee to draft this proposal.

Senate Election
Dr. McGuiness led a discussion on the Senate election procedures and process. The following issues were identified, all of which will require a change in the by-laws and University Handbook:
- Faculty opting in for inclusion on the ballot rather than opting out, as is currently done
- Representation of the three schools
- Representation of junior faculty
- The role of chairs/program directors in service on the Faculty Senate

These issues will not be resolved in time for this year’s election, but it is hoped that the Senate could reach agreement and make any necessary changes for the election of 2011.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:50 p.m.

Procedures for Submitting Items for Inclusion in the Campus News

All information for the General, Academic, Minutes, or Athletic sections—with or without graphics and photos—must be submitted electronically either:

- via the “Submit an item” form in the Media and Publications channel on the News and Media tab of the portal,
- via e-mail to campusnews@lasalle.edu. (The article title must be included in the subject line of the e-mail), or
- via CD sent to Campus News, Box 187.

Submissions can be sent with graphics and photos laid out with the text or sent with the text and graphics separately. Please submit flyers and circulars as attachments in Microsoft ©Word or as PDF files. Please submit photos as JPEG files.

Letterhead or logos with submissions must conform to the approved standards explained and illustrated in the Brand Book published and distributed by University Communications.

All photos and graphics (clip art, logos other than La Salle’s) must have their owners’ permission to be reproduced. If you submit them with your information, you are responsible for gaining this permission.

All employment listings must be submitted first to Human Resources for approval (for more information, contact Gregory O’Shea at 215.951.1354).

Deadlines for Submission

- General News, Meeting Minutes, Events, and Other News: Wednesday at 4 p.m.
- New Positions of Employment at La Salle University: Monday at 2 p.m.
