The Jazz Band’s Spring Concert in the Dan Rodden Theatre
To:       La Salle Community

Date:     April 23, 2010
RE:        2010 Distinguished Faculty Awards

In Spring 2004 the Faculty Senate recommended, and the Provost approved, the creation of two distinct faculty awards: one for scholarship and one for service. Nominations for the two Distinguished Faculty Awards are due Monday, May 3. Nominations should be sent to Michael Smith, Chair of the Faculty Senate Subcommittee on Academic and Faculty Affairs, through Campus Mail (Box 158) or preferably as e-mail attachments (Word or PDF files) to msmith@lasalle.edu. Please put “Distinguished Faculty Awards” in the “subject” line.

Faculty Distinguished Scholarship Award

1. Purpose:
The purpose of the award is to recognize and honor excellence in scholarship among our faculty colleagues.

2. Criterion for selecting a winner:
The award will be conferred for outstanding scholarly work done across one’s career at La Salle University (rather than for the activities of a single year). Please write a letter of nomination (not exceeding 500 words) explaining the reasons why you believe the faculty member should be a candidate for the Distinguished Scholar Award. In your letter, make sure to address the following:

   The extent to which the person’s scholarly activity is programmatic (e.g., planned, purposeful, and conceptually and/or theoretically linked);
   The extent to which this person’s scholarship represents significant and lasting effects on his or her field;
   The extent to which this person’s scholarly activity has had a positive impact on La Salle, not only by adding to the University’s reputation, but also by including or influencing other members of the University community (students and/or colleagues);
   The extent to which this person has been able to achieve excellence in scholarship while also demonstrating quality teaching and service.

Letters of recommendation should clearly demonstrate how the nominee’s work is exceptional according to discipline specific criteria.

3. Procedures:
All full-time members of the faculty are eligible for the award. Prior receipt of any award will not affect eligibility. The ‘Awards Committee’—comprising the four members of the Faculty Senate Subcommittee on Academic and Faculty Affairs, two additional faculty members appointed for one-year terms by the Senate, and the Assistant Provost—will select the recipient from among nominations made by full-time faculty members. The at-large members of this Awards Committee will be selected in such a way that each of the schools of the University has at least one representative on the committee.

Early in the spring semester of each year, the Faculty Senate will solicit and receive nominations. Individual faculty members may nominate themselves or others by submitting a letter of nomination describing the contributions made by the nominee. The letters of nomination should be of sufficient detail so that they will stand by themselves as documentation of the justification for the award. On receiving nominations, the Awards Committee will inform the nominee and, if the nominee wishes to be considered for the award, the Committee will request that the nominee submit a curriculum vita and the names of two external evaluators from whom the committee will then solicit confidential letters of support. The Committee will then meet to identify the award recipient. There will be one recipient per year. Generally, in order that the award may be conferred in a timely fashion in a given year, the process of nomination and selection will be completed by May Commencement.

The recipient’s achievements will be recognized and honored at the Fall Honors Convocation, and the recipient will have the option of addressing brief remarks to those gathered. The Provost will award the recipient an honorarium of $1,000.00, and an award certificate. In addition, as abiding public recognition of the recipient’s achievements, a plaque bearing the recipient’s name will be placed in a prominent public space on campus.

Faculty Distinguished Service Award

1. Purpose:
The Faculty Distinguished Service Award is intended to recognize excellence in service among our faculty colleagues. Complementing the Lindback Award and the Faculty Distinguished Scholar Award, which respectively recognize excellence in teaching and excellence in scholarship, this award is intended to recognize excellence in community service.

2. Criterion for selecting a winner:
This award is given for exceptional involvement in and devotion to the good of the University community for collegial contributions that advance the University’s mission, and for leadership in building a Lasalian sense of fellowship either among the branches of the University or between the University and the larger community to which La Salle belongs.

Please write a letter of nomination (not exceeding 500 words) explaining the reasons why you believe the faculty member should be a candidate for the Distinguished Service Award. In your letter, make sure to address the following:

- The nature of the person’s service;
- The extent to which this person’s service demonstrates devotion to the good of the University community and/or advances the University’s mission;
- A description of how collegiality and/or fellowship is a defining aspect of this person’s service;
- The extent to which this person has been able to achieve excellence in service while also demonstrating quality teaching and scholarship.

3. Procedures:
All full-time members of the faculty are eligible for the award. Prior receipt of this or any other award will not affect eligibility.

The ‘Awards Committee’—comprising the four members of the Faculty Senate Subcommittee on Academic and Faculty Affairs, two additional faculty members appointed for one-year terms by the Senate, and the Assistant Provost—will review the nomination letters. The at-large members of the committee will be selected in such a way that each of the schools of the University has at least one representative on the committee.

Early in the spring semester of each year, the Faculty Senate will solicit and receive nominations. Individuals may nominate themselves or others by submitting a letter of nomination describing the contributions made by the nominee. The letters of nomination should be written so that they will stand by themselves as documentation of the justification for the award, explicitly identifying the nominee’s service to the University. On receiving nominations, the Awards Committee will inform the nominee and, if the nominee wishes to be considered for the award, the Committee will request that the nominee submit a curriculum vita. The Awards Committee will review applications and identify a short list of no more than three candidates. The committee will then meet with the Provost to identify the recipient. There will be one recipient per year. Generally, in order that the award may be conferred in a timely fashion in a given year, the process of nomination and selection will be completed by May Commencement.

The recipient’s achievements will be recognized and honored at the Opening Academic Convocation, and the recipient will have the option of addressing brief remarks to those gathered. The Provost will award the recipient an honorarium of $1,000.00 and an award certificate. In addition, as abiding public recognition of the recipient’s achievements, a plaque bearing the recipient’s name will be placed in a prominent public space on campus.

Faculty Senate Meeting
April 8, 2010

Excused: D. Cichowicz, W. Price, J. Volpe

Approval of Minutes
The minutes of the meeting of March 16, 2010 were approved by a vote of 11-0-2.

Presentation by Members of the Health Advisory Committee
Brother John Crawford, Dr. Lane Neubauer, Professor Mary Wilby, and Dina Oleksiak from the University’s Health Advisory Committee discussed with the Senate a proposal to extend a no-smoking policy throughout the campus. Nothing has been decided, and the purpose of this presentation was to solicit the Senate’s feedback on this concept. The Committee would like the Senate’s endorsement of a proposal to move in the direction of no-smoking throughout the campus. President Welsh asked the Committee to bring a draft of a specific proposal to the Senate, at which time the Senate would discuss it, and determine whether they would endorse the proposal.

Executive Session
The Senate convened in Executive Session to discuss recommendations for committee appointments.

Next meeting: April 27, 2010 at 12:30 p.m. in the McShain Board Room

The meeting was adjourned at 1:45 p.m.

Connelly Library seeks an Acquisition/Collection Development Librarian for employment beginning 1 August 2010. Reporting to the Director of Library Services, this professional position carries faculty status but not rank, and is non-tenure track. It bears full retirement benefits (TIAA-CREF), full medical benefits, with paid vacation and sick leave. This is NOT an entry-level position and candidates must be experienced in all phases and processes of collection management, acquisitions, and fiscal management. The position requires strong budgetary, analytical and financial decision-making skills with an orientation toward evolving academic library accounting practices in a volatile economic climate.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Co-ordinate selection/de-selection of monographic books, audio-books, e-books, and electronic resources in all subject areas;
- Design and manage the acquisitions process for all materials in all media as well as for databases and serial formats;
- Must demonstrate extensive knowledge of the financial structure and practices of the publishing industry and academic libraries;
- Cultivate a state-of-the-art understanding of publishing and academic library trends while preparing complex budget analysis to insure efficient use of materials funds;
- Create and maintain a systematic liaison process with faculty for subject collection development;
- Supervise the reports required by academic departments and programs for accreditation visits;
- Supervise two full-time Bibliographic Assistants and 5 -10 student workers;
- Formulate written departmental planning and policy;
- Participate in strategic planning (a requirement).

Qualifications:

MLS or equivalent from an ALA-Accredited institution required; special consideration will be offered for a second post baccalaureate subject degree; demonstrated proficiency in financial management; ability to work in a collaborative and changing environment; knowledge of collections and technical services automation and trends; facility with computer applications, and effective oral and written communication skills. Strong preference will be given to individuals with a minimum of 5+ years post MLS experience in an academic library setting, supervisory experience, and a working knowledge of Innovative Interfaces Inc. Millennium.

Individuals who want to be considered should forward a cover letter, copy of résumé, and the names of three professional references to the address below.

Electronic submission of application documents is strongly encouraged.
