Are Corporations Hazardous to Your Health?

Ethical Considerations

Paul Brazina, MBA, CPA, CMA, Dean, School of Business

Wednesday, November 3, 3:00 p.m.
Holroyd Lobby (Free Food)

Using the film “Silkwood” as a backdrop, the School of Business Dean Paul Brazina will lead a discussion on corporate responsibility for environmental issues. Is the concept of maximizing corporate value in-line with society’s need for responsible stewardship of its resources and communities? What impact can you make as a new employee, and how do you make your voice heard?

Explorer Cafés are every Wednesday at 3:00 p.m. Open to all.

Director of Security and Safety
Subject: La Salle University Community’s Conversation on Safety

I am pleased to announce that the University will host a La Salle University Community Conversation on Safety on Wednesday, November 3, 2010, from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. in the Dan Rodden Theatre.

I will be one of three panelists who will make some observations and respond to questions. The other panel members will be Mr. William K. Greenlee, City of Philadelphia City Council Person at Large, and Captain John McCloskey, City of Philadelphia Police Department and Commanding Officer of the 35th Police District.

The moderator for the event will be Mr. Edward Turzanski, Counsel to the President and Assistant Vice President for Governmental and Community Relations.

I hope that you are able to join us for this important event.

Health Advisory Committee
October 14, 2010

Present: Co-Chairs: Lane Neubauer & Dina Oleksiak; Members: Marjorie Allen, Mark Badstubner, Kate Cook, Br. John Crawford, Matt Gionta, Mike Gilbert
Guests: Joe Birster, John Manion, Margaret Walsh
Absent: Lindsay Cicchino, Jeff Lyons, Vanessa Ocasio, Greg O’Shea, Mary Wilby

I. Handicap Accessibility Issues
   a. Mr. Birster informed the committee that all new construction and renovations are required to be in compliance with ADA regulations. A HAC member mentioned that the ramp in Holroyd is difficult to maneuver if one is in a wheelchair and that the electronic door has been broken. Mr. Birster stated that he was unaware of this and would check on this.
   b. Other issues that were mentioned include curb cuts that are not flush with the ground and elevators that break down resulting in upper floors being off limit to anyone confined to a wheelchair.
      i. Mr. Birster stressed the importance of reporting issues immediately by email so that this can be recorded in the log book and responded to in a timely fashion.
      ii. He also noted that the service contracts on Elevators have been updated to insure a quick response when there is a problem.
   c. Mr. Birster will stay in touch with the committee with updates when necessary.

II. Automated External Defibrillators
   a. Dr. Neubauer contacted Security and Safety to inquire about AED’s at La Salle in response to questions from a HAC member.
   b. Currently there are 6 upgraded AED’s (Zoll Medical AED plus – purchased and placed into service in July 2010). These are located in the following areas.
      i. Hayman Center Conference Room Hall
      ii. Security Dispatch
      iii. Administration Building near Admissions
      iv. Union Building in Lobby
      v. Bucks County at Security Desk
      vi. Metroplex behind Security Desk

III. Germantown Emergency Room
   a. Germantown ER is closing and combining with Einstein ER.
   b. Dina will speak with the Nurse Manager to find out how we can assure that our students in need of emergency services are best served with this move to Einstein.

IV. Flu Shots
   a. 700 flu shots were purchased by Human Resources to be available for employees and students.
   b. To date, over 600 Lasallians have received flu shots administered by the Student Health Center Nurse Practitioners.

V. Health Tip of the Month
   a. SNAP will again work with the HAC to provide the information for the Monthly Health Tip.
   b. November’s Health tip will focus on Blood Pressure.

VI. Fall Blood Drive—scheduled for Nov. 9 & 10.
   a. Several student organizations will help to staff the Blood Drive recruitment tables the week prior to the Blood Drive. These include many Fraternities and Sororities, SGA, SWA, SNAP, LEAN, Peer Educators & RSA.
   b. HAC members will staff a table outside the Faculty Dining Room on Weds. November 3.

VII. Wellness Benefits for Employees
   a. La Salle’s PASIG (Philadelphia Area Independent Schools Insurance Group) health insurance consortium representative – John Manion – spoke to the Health Advisory Committee about involving La Salle employees in ‘wellness initiatives’ as a way to lower future premium costs to the University. (La Salle joined PASIG in June 2010 allowing the University to manage future costs by becoming a part of a much larger insurance risk pool).
   b. Mr. Manion suggested the following possibilities for La Salle.
      i. Walking at Work program (pedometers would be provided)
      ii. Weight Watchers at Work (10 week program - $135 that would be reimbursed at the end by IBC)
      iii. Smoking Cessation program (IBC could provide smoking cessation seminars)
      iv. Biggest Loser competition between departments (6 free nutrition counseling sessions can be provided)
      v. Heightening awareness and intervention to address Metabolic Syndrome (high blood pressure, high cholesterol, high BMI) (10 week program).
   c. The HAC acknowledged and supports the importance of the above Employee initiatives. HR will continue to partner with PASIG for wellness initiatives.

VIII. Next Meeting – Friday, November 5, 2:00–3:00 Union 308

Assistant Director, Part-Time MBA Program
School of Business

La Salle University’s Part-Time MBA Program seeks to fill an opening for Assistant Director of the Part-Time MBA Program. This vital position is responsible for student admissions and recruiting, advising working adults in the Part-Time MBA Program at the satellite campus locations during day and evening hours, and assisting the Director with daily program administration. Additional responsibilities include, establishing and maintaining relationships with corporate partners as well as supervising the part-time administrative assistant.

A Bachelor’s degree is required and a Master’s degree is preferred. Strong consideration will be given to a highly motivated, self-starter with a proven record of success in student admissions and/or marketing in higher education. The successful candidate will possess excellent writing and communication skills with strong attention to detail and the ability to problem solve independently. Proficiency in Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, and Excel required. Evening hours and occasional weekend work required.

La Salle offers an attractive compensation and benefits package, including tuition remission.

Qualified applicants should submit a résumé, cover letter, salary requirements and contact information for three professional references by November 12, in a Word document to mba@lasalle.edu or mail to the following:
