Open Enrollment Period for the 2011-2012 Medical Reimbursement and Dependent Care Flexible Spending Accounts

The open enrollment period for the 2011-2012 Flexible Spending Account plan year began Monday, April 11, 2011 and will end Wednesday, April 27, 2011. This program allows you to set up pre-tax accounts to help cover dependent care expenses or eligible medical expenses not paid by your health, prescription, dental or vision plans.

La Salle offers you two types of Flexible Spending Accounts – medical and dependent care. You can choose to participate in both the medical reimbursement and dependent care flexible spending account programs, or you may elect one or the other. You can use the medical reimbursement spending account to pay for up to $2,500 a year of eligible medical expenses, such as deductibles, co-pays, prescription eyeglasses, contact lenses, dental balances and any other eligible expenses that may not be fully covered under your plan. For dependent care, you can set aside up to $5,000 annually to pay for eligible dependent care expenses, such as daycare, camp fees, and babysitting services. Please remember that eligible full-time employees can only enroll in the plans during the open enrollment period unless there is a change in eligibility status during the plan year.

Come and learn more about these valuable benefits at one of the following information sessions:

- Friday, April 15, 2011 from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.
- Monday, April 18, 2011 from 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Lawrence Conference Room, Administration Center

All employees who attend a meeting will be entered into a drawing for a prize.

Please note if you are a current FSA participant, you must re-enroll for the upcoming plan year.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Human Resources at extension 1013.
Check Out Our Open Enrollment Raffle Winners!
There is still time to enroll in the two new additional benefits—Short Term Disability and Voluntary Life. All full-time faculty and staff have until April 29 to sign up for these two exciting benefits without medical underwriting.

A Day in the Life Offshore: A Glimpse into Offshore Drilling

Monday, April 18, 1:00 p.m.
Holroyd 190, La Salle University

Captain Edward Ruth, Ship’s Master on Discoverer Enterprise, Transocean, and graduate of United States Merchant Marine Academy, 1980, will present on the field of Offshore Drilling with a special look at the Horizon Incident (also known as BP Oil Spill), including some of the methods that were attempted to stem the well up and the effects of the incident on the offshore industry in the U.S.

Learn about the men and women who work offshore in the oil and gas industry, find out what it takes to keep a 103,000 metric ton vessel afloat and operating in the deep waters around the world, and get a first-hand account of the first of the “Big” rigs, the Discoverer Enterprise, from the former Captain himself.

This event is a proud part of the inaugural Philadelphia Science Festival. All are welcome.

Modified: A Look at the Future of Food

Tuesday, April 19, 7:00p.m.
Dan Rodden Theatre, La Salle University

Featuring Dr. Dominic Sisti, Penn Center for Bioethics, and Dr. Nina Fedoroff, Acclaimed Life Scientist and Author of “Mendel in the Kitchen: A Scientist’s View of Genetically Modified Foods”

In 40 years, one in every four people on Earth will starve unless food production more than doubles. Meeting the challenges of feeding a still-growing human population while preserving remaining biodiversity will require increasing scientific and technological sophistication, as well as the development of new forms of agriculture suitable for arid lands.

Join Dr. Dominic Sisti, Penn Center for Bioethics, and Dr. Nina Fedoroff, Penn State, former Science and Technology Advisor to the U.S. State Department (2007-2010) and current President of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, for an interactive discussion about agriculture, technology, and the future of the food we put on our dinner tables.

“What Makes Us Human?” Part 1
The Animal Connection

Wednesday, April 20, 3:00p.m.
Holroyd Atrium, La Salle University

Facilitated by Dr. Joel Garver, Assistant Professor of Philosophy, La Salle University; Dr. Alexander Skolnick, Assistant Professor of Psychology, Saint Joseph’s University; and Dr. Gerald Ballough, Professor of Biology and Neuroscience Expert, La Salle University

Chimpanzees share nearly 99 percent of human DNA. But how do we compare mentally? What happens when we bring moral judgment and behavior into the equation?

Discuss the ways that emerging research is finally helping us answer one of the biggest questions in science: what makes us uniquely human?

This program is the first in a two-part Explorer Café series, a proud part of the inaugural Philadelphia Science Festival.

Partners: La Salle University, Saint Joseph’s University, NOVA

The Explorer Café is brought to you by The Explorer Connection of La Salle University. Free Food. Open to all. Only one café left this year. Don’t miss out!

“What Makes Us Human?” Part 2

Extinction: Will Humans Be Next?

Wednesday, April 27, 3:00p.m.
Holroyd Atrium, La Salle University

Facilitated by Dr. James Pierce, Chair,
Biology Department, La Salle University

For many, human extinction seems like light years away, but is it really so far off? Dr. James Pierce will lead a discussion on the science of extinction, drawing on examples of species that once inhabited the earth, while addressing the philosophical, moral, and religious implications of inevitable extinction and how it shapes the way we live our lives today. This is the second in a two-part Explorer Café series on “What Makes Us Human?”

April Health Tip of the Month
Step into Spring

Here are some tips to finish the semester strong and with minimal stress!

- Time Management is key, so make sure you pencil in time for sleep!
- Set realistic goals for yourself!
- Have “you” time; it’s hard to find a place to be alone in college, so do your best to have some alone time!
- Talk about your stress; everyone in college understands stress and may be able to provide you some insight!
- Try some relaxation techniques such as deep breathing, listening to music, or even meditation!

Faculty Senate Meeting
March 1, 2011

Present: Welsh, McGuinness, Blum, Smith, McMonigle, McCoey, Moreau, Falcone, Feden, Balchunis, Volpe, Allen, Cichowicz, Mosca, Price, Desnoyers, Yost

Excused: Ballough, Dillon, Ruiz, Texter,

Approval of Minutes
The Minutes of February 10, 2011 were approved with a vote of 10-0-5.

Updates
• Memorial Wall
  An announcement was made that the Memorial Wall celebration will take place on March 21.
• Senate Elections
  Maggie McGuinness indicated that 70 faculty responded for the 2011-2012 election ballot; a reminder will be sent to faculty.
• Changes to Handbook concerning Faculty and Leave
  Jeannie Welsh indicated that there is a draft revision of the personnel manual that FAP will be reviewing.

Role of Chairs/Directors on Faculty Senate
David Falcone presented the concern about the roles of Chairs/Directors on Faculty Senate. He indicated that the roles of Chairs/Directors have changed and that it may be problematic for offering an independent voice in governance. Discussion involved the difficult role of Chairs to satisfy both Dean and faculty; a call for sensitivity to Senate when the influence of administrators affects decisions; upcoming agenda items and how Senate should address these issues from a faculty perspective; the need to be proactive in setting the agenda to address faculty concerns and suggested methods to collect faculty concerns on an annual basis (Survey Monkey?).

Faculty Office Hours for Online Courses
Peggy McCoey presented a draft from the SAS concerning guidelines for virtual office hours. Discussion involved the regularity of contact with faculty in the virtual environment and the manner in which individuals handle this contact. It was the overall sense that those teaching online courses should not be mandated to set specific virtual office hours.

March 17, 2011 Meeting
The discussion of peer-review of tenure-track faculty will be on the next agenda.

Meeting was adjourned 1:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by
Mary Ellen A. McMonigle, Secretary

Board Business 4/ Dues Guideline
New Policy Proposed:
Dues for associations may be considered for funding, but dues for individual students will not be considered for funding. Student organizations would need to adhere to the following stipulations for dues allotment by the Funding Board:

Student organizations must be free of GPA requirements or gender restrictions for membership.
Student organizations must apply as an organization and not under the names of individual members.
This will apply for the bi-weekly Funding Board meeting (Contingency Funding) requests.

MOTION: Amy Esselman in favor
SECOND: Emily Plummer
VOTE: In favor: 7  Opposed: 3  Abstain: 0

Note: The proposed policy will be sent to Dr. Moore for his review.
