Distinguished Faculty Awards - 2011

In Spring 2004 the Faculty Senate recommended, and the Provost approved, the creation of two distinct faculty awards: one for scholarship and one for service.

Nominations for the two Distinguished Faculty Awards are due Wednesday, June 8. Nominations should be sent to Michael Smith, Chair of the Faculty Senate Subcommittee on Academic and Faculty Affairs, through Campus Mail (Box 158) or preferably as e-mail attachments (Word or PDF files) to msmith@lasalle.edu. Please put “Distinguished Faculty Awards” in the “subject” line.

Faculty Distinguished Scholarship Award

1. Purpose:
The purpose of the award is to recognize and honor excellence in scholarship among our faculty colleagues.

2. Criterion for selecting a winner:
The award will be conferred for outstanding scholarly work done across one’s career at La Salle University (rather than for the activities of a single year). Please write a letter of nomination (not exceeding 500 words) explaining the reasons why you believe the faculty member should be a candidate for the Distinguished Scholar Award. In your letter, make sure to address the following:

- The extent to which the person’s scholarly activity is programmatic (e.g., planned, purposeful, and conceptually and/or theoretically linked);
- The extent to which this person’s scholarship represents significant and lasting effects on his or her field;
- The extent to which this person’s scholarly activity has had a positive impact on La Salle, not only by adding to the University’s reputation, but also by including or influencing other members of the University community (students and/or colleagues);
- The extent to which this person has been able to achieve excellence in scholarship while also demonstrating quality teaching and service.

Letters of recommendation should clearly demonstrate how the nominee’s work is exceptional according to discipline specific criteria.

3. Procedures:
All full-time members of the faculty are eligible for the award. Prior receipt of any other award will not affect eligibility.

The ‘Awards Committee’—comprising the four members of the Faculty Senate Subcommittee on Academic and Faculty Affairs, two additional faculty members appointed for one-year terms by the Senate, and the Assistant Provost—will select the recipient from among nominations made by full-time faculty members. The at-large members of this Awards Committee will be selected in such a way that each of the schools of the University has at least one representative on the committee.

During the spring semester of each year, the Faculty Senate will solicit and receive nominations. Individual faculty members may nominate themselves or others by submitting a letter of nomination describing the contributions made by the nominee. The letters of nomination should be of sufficient detail so that they will stand by themselves as documentation of the justification for the award. On receiving nominations, the Awards Committee will inform the nominee and, if the nominee wishes to be considered for the award, the Committee will request that the nominee submit a curriculum vita and the names of two external evaluators from whom the committee will then solicit confidential letters of support. The Committee will then meet to identify the award recipient. There will be one recipient per year. Generally, in order that the award may be conferred in a timely fashion in a given year, the process of nomination and selection will be completed by May Commencement.

The recipient’s achievements will be recognized and honored at the Fall Honors Convocation, and the recipient will have the option of addressing brief remarks to those gathered. The Provost will award the recipient an honorarium of $1,000.00, and an award certificate. In addition, as abiding public recognition of the recipient’s achievements, a plaque bearing the recipient’s name will be placed in a prominent public space on campus.

Faculty Distinguished Service Award

1. Purpose:
The Faculty Distinguished Service Award is intended to recognize excellence in service among our faculty colleagues. Complementing the Lindback Award and the Faculty Distinguished Scholar Award, which respectively recognize excellence in teaching and excellence in scholarship, this award is intended to recognize excellence in community service.

2. Criterion for selecting a winner:
This award is given for exceptional involvement in and devotion to the good of the University community for collegial contributions that advance the University’s mission, and for leadership in building a Lasallian sense of fellowship either among the branches of the University or between the University and the larger community to which La Salle belongs.

Please write a letter of nomination (not exceeding 500 words) explaining the reasons why you believe the faculty member should be a candidate for the Distinguished Service Award. In your letter, make sure to address the following:

- The nature of the person’s service;
- The extent to which this person’s service demonstrates devotion to the good of the University community and/or advances the University’s mission;
- A description of how collegiality and/or fellowship is a defining aspect of this person’s service;
- The extent to which this person has been able to achieve excellence in service while also demonstrating quality teaching and scholarship.

3. Procedures:
All full-time members of the faculty are eligible for the award. Prior receipt of this or any other award will not affect eligibility.

The “Awards Committee”—comprising the four members of the Faculty Senate Subcommittee on Academic and Faculty Affairs, two additional faculty members appointed for one-year terms by the Senate, and the Assistant Provost—will review the nomination letters. The at-large members of the committee will be selected in such a way that each of the schools of the University has at least one representative on the committee.

Early in the spring semester of each year, the Faculty Senate will solicit and receive nominations. Individuals may nominate themselves or others by submitting a letter of nomination describing the contributions made by the nominee. The letters of nomination should be written so that they will stand by themselves as documentation of the justification for the award, explicitly identifying the nominee’s service to the University. On receiving nominations, the Awards Committee will inform the nominee and, if the nominee wishes to be considered for the award, the Committee will request that the nominee submit a curriculum vita. The Awards Committee will review applications and identify a short list of no more than three candidates. The committee will then meet with the Provost to identify the recipient. There will be one recipient per year. Generally, in order that the award may be conferred in a timely fashion in a given year, the process of nomination and selection will be completed by May Commencement.

The recipient’s achievements will be recognized and honored during the La Salle Academic Orientation week in August, and the recipient may be asked to address brief remarks to the Opening Convocation. The Provost will award the recipient an honorarium of $1,000.00 and an award certificate. In addition, as abiding public recognition of the recipient’s achievements, a plaque bearing the recipient’s name will be placed in a prominent public space on campus.

Condensed Summer Hours Schedule

This is just a reminder for the condensed summer hours schedule that will commence Monday, June 6 and continue through Thursday, August 11. The condensed weekly work schedule for salaried employees during the approved summer period is Monday through Thursday from 8:15 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. with a one-half hour nonpaid lunch period. Depending upon your responsibilities and upon the approval of the head of each division, staff will be allowed to work under this condensed weekly work schedule. The adjusted schedule will not apply to some departments that provide essential services, like those who conduct the summer conference business of the University. Similarly the Security and Safety Department will remain on their regular work week.

The only exception to this schedule is the week of July 4, because that day is a University holiday for Independence Day. Regular hours (8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.) apply for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of that week. The hours for Friday, July 8 will be 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Aside from the condensed schedule, on three Fridays – May 20, June 3, and August 19, offices will close at 3:30 p.m.

In order to provide the best customer service for our internal colleagues as well as external visitors to the University, can you please remember to adjust your voice mail accordingly.

Preserving Illustrated and Historic Bibles and Curating a Digital Collection Through Constructive Partnership

This exhibit honors the mission of the Susan Dunleavy Collection of Biblical Literature, by highlighting its significant holdings, which not only contain beautiful and inspirational imagery but also feature some of the most notable Bibles in the world. The exhibit aims to highlight our partnership with Villanova University’s Digital Library, and to announce that, in celebration of the 400th anniversary of the 1611 Authorized King James Version of the Holy Bible, the Collection's first edition "Great He Bible," printed in 1611, is now online.

Now on display until July

First Floor, Connelly Library
WHO AM I?

CLUE: "Here I am as a young girl on skates outside my Philadelphia home. My mother thought that when I grew up I'd be a nun, but instead I married and raised five children. Since they are on their own, I've been working here at La Salle—actually working for two departments for over 14 years."

Do you know who this person is? Send the name along with your name to campusnews@lasalle.edu. [Her identity will be announced in the June 30 issue.]

If you have a photo of yourself from the past and would like to be featured, please send it along with a clue to the above e-mail address or to Campus News, Box 187. All prints of photos will be scanned and returned.
Faculty Senate Meeting
April 5, 2011

Present: Welsh, McGuinness, Blum, Smith, McMonigle, McCoey, Moreau, Falcone, Feden, Balchunis, Volpe, Allen, Cichowicz, Mosca, Price, Yost, Ballough, Dillon, Ruiz, Texter

Excused: Desnoyers

Approval of Minutes
The Minutes of March 1st were approved with a vote of 16-0-3.

Updates
Senate Elections
Maggie McGuinness indicated that the ballot closes on Monday at 5 p.m.

Faculty Development Project
Preston Feden expressed desire for faculty voice on decisions of faculty development. Data are being collected in faculty inquiry (47 faculty/16 staff). It has three parts that are inclusive of all faculty: inventory of faculty development from Chairs; inventory of faculty development from other sources; faculty publications on creative pedagogies

Academic Affairs Committee Appointments
Peggy McCoey will be sending electronic e-mail for faculty committees. Graduate Council will be dissolved if change in committee structure is approved by the Board of Trustees at the May meeting.

Third-Year Review
Mike Smith indicated that the Third Year Review policy was vetted by University lawyers with minor changes and it is going to University Council.

Partially Retired Faculty
Mike Smith presented issues under consideration: eligibility; period of partial retirement; timing; procedure for policy review; suggestions to talk to both groups about issues (partially retired and those teaching while retired on a continuous basis); concern over faculty lines due to partial retirement and finances.

Peer Review of Tenure-Track Faculty
Jeannie Welsh indicated the University Handbook has an option for review of classroom teaching before tenure application. It was suggested that either the Handbook or the policy has to change. Senate discussed the difference between a formative and evaluative review. Discussion will continue.

New Business
The Executive Committee will meet with the Provost to discuss current issues; he will be invited to attend the May Senate meeting.

Meeting adjourned 1:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Ellen A. McMonigle, Secretary
