“Henry Ossawa Tanner: Modern Spirit”

Lecture by Monica Zimmerman
Assistant Director of Museum Education
Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts

Tuesday, October 25, 2011
1 p.m.
Renaissance Room, La Salle University Art Museum

The La Salle University Art Museum’s beloved painting of Mary (1898) by Henry Ossawa Tanner (1859–1937) will be part of a travelling exhibition developed by the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts (PAFA). The painting will leave the La Salle University Art Museum on Nov. 10, 2011. After its 14-month tour of downtown Philadelphia, Pa., Cincinnati, Ohio, and Houston, Texas, the painting will return to La Salle for reinstallation in January 2013.

October ’11 Health Tip of the Month

Designed by La Salle University’s Student Nurses Association of PA (SNAP);
Brought to you by the Health Advisory Committee

Breast Cancer is one of the leading causes of cancer death among women of all races.

In the US, in 2007, 202,964 women were diagnosed with breast cancer, and 40,598 women died from the disease.

Getting regular screening tests is the best way for women to lower their risk for breast cancer in the following ways:

- Mammogram
- Clinical breast exam
- Breast self-exam

Knowing it exists
is not enough.
Get informed. Pass it on.

How to get help

- Student Health Center: 215-951-1565 (Full Time

Whose Head Will Wear the Crown?
You can nominate your favorite senior for King or Queen of Homecoming 2011
Nominations will be accepted until Monday, October 24, 2011 at 4:30 p.m.

Just go to the Life@La Salle tab in the mylasalle portal to the Events channel where you can click the link to nominate electronically. Anyone can nominate a senior, and you need to nominate a candidate only once! If you need any more information, call University Life 215.951.1374.

The future king and queen must:
Be a SENIOR.
Live Lasallian values.
Exemplify academic excellence.
Be involved in bettering the La Salle community.
Have a positive attitude in everyday contact with others.

Nominated students who submit an application will be reviewed by a Selection Committee. Students will participate in voting for the King and Queen from finalists chosen by the Committee. The voting period will be from November 14 to November 18 in the Union Lobby.

Homecoming is on Saturday, November 19, 2011. Homecoming Royalty will be announced at halftime of the men's basketball game that starts at 3 p.m. against James Madison in the Tom Gola Arena.
Crossing the Boundaries of Color:
An Interdisciplinary Look at "Color"

Michael Prushan, Ph.D., Chemistry
Sandra Camomile, M.F.A., DArt
Marjie Allen, Ph.D., Integrated Studies

Wednesday, October 19, 3:00 p.m.
Holroyd Atrium. Free Food.

What is "color" and how do we know? What is the relationship between one color and another... between what we name a color and how we perceive it? When a chemist, a linguist and an artist look at colors, do we "see" the same thing?

This interactive workshop café will look at colors through three different lenses, and, in the process, raise questions about "disciplinary perspectives."

Explorer Cafés are every Wednesday at 3:00 p.m. except for “First Tuesday” Cafés (4:00 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month beginning in October).

Let's Travel to Tibet: A Cultural Program

Featuring The Monks of Labrang Tashi Kyil Monastery, India
Thursday, October 20, 2011 • 12:30–2 p.m. • Dunleavy Room

Co-sponsored with the Multicultural and International Center

Labrang Tashi Kyil was a major monastic center serving as a wellspring of the Buddhist teachings for the region of Amdo in eastern Tibet. Regarding its buildings and holy objects, there were more than 30 assembly halls and temples including the six colleges, 10 different monastic residences (labangs), and monastic residence halls. Among its many treasures and sacred objects were a set of the Two Buddhist canonical collections, Kangyur and Tengyur, handwritten in gold. The monastery was annihilated by the Communist Chinese in 1959 and was re-established in India in 1967.
