WHO AM I?

CLUE: "Here I am as a very serious first grader, at St. Stephen’s School formerly located at Broad & Butler Streets. At this time, I had no idea that I would enter the health field and get my training at a higher learning institution just sixteen blocks north and six blocks west of St. Stephen’s. I have worked at several places but found La Salle to be the most rewarding place for myself and my family—especially since now I help others in my field come here for their degrees."

Do you know who this person is? If so, send the name along with your name to campusnews@lasalle.edu. [Her identity will be announced in the December 2 issue.]

If you have a photo of yourself from the past and would like to be featured, please send it along with a clue to the above e-mail address or to Campus News, Box 187. All prints of photos will be scanned and returned.
To: La Salle University Community
From: Beth Harper Briglia, Alumni Association Vice-President
        Chair of the Awards Committee
Date: November 11, 2011
Subject: Call for Nominations, Alumni Association Award 2012: John J. Finley, ’24 Award

Each year during the Fall Homecoming celebration, the Alumni Association holds its annual awards dinner and honors several students with the Alpha Epsilon Honor Society Induction along with alumni and community leaders the John J. Finley, ’24 Award and Signum Fidei Medal. In recognition of the 150th Anniversary celebration, The Alumni Association has been working closely with the University’s 150th Anniversary Planning Committee to identify Signum Fidei Medal nominees.

On behalf of the Alumni Association Board of Directors, I invite your participation in sending recommendations for nominees for the prestigious 2012 Finley award.

The Finley Award is presented each year to alumni who have exhibited outstanding service to La Salle University or the Alumni Association. John J. Finley, ’24 held the position of President, Vice President and at the time of his death in 1961, Treasurer of the Alumni Association. To his contemporaries he was known as “Mr. La Salle” for his dedication to the University. The Alumni Association strives to honor those who have made significant contributions of their expertise and time to advance the mission of the University. These awardees are known to be outstanding volunteers who have taken on leadership roles among fellow alumni volunteers. Past Finley winners have a long track record of service to academic departments, strategic initiatives, student development and of course, their fellow alumni. A complete list of prior award winners for the Finley Award appears on the next page.

The Awards Selection committee asks that you please submit the alum’s name, class year, and reasons why the candidate meets the Finley Award criteria. Nominations are due by e-mail to Trey Ulrich (Ulrich@lasalle.edu) by Monday, November 28.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at briglia208@comcast.com or Trey Ulrich in the Office for Alumni Relations at ulrich@lasalle.edu or 215.951.1834.

Thank you, in advance, for your input and consideration of this important Alumni Association award.
John J. Finley, '24, Award

This award is given to recognize alumni who have exhibited outstanding service to La Salle University or the Alumni Association. John J. Finley, '24, held the position of President, Vice President, and, at the time of his death in 1961, Treasurer of the Alumni Association. To his contemporaries, he was known as “Mr. La Salle” for his devotion and dedication to the University.

Using Wimba Effectively as a Learning Tool

December 1, 2011
12:30 to 1:30 p.m.
Online in Wimba Classroom

In the movie Ferris Bueller’s Day Off, teacher Ben Stein could see that his students were falling asleep and drooling on their desks; he just choose not to do anything to wake them up and engage them. Now, let’s fast forward 20 years, and suppose that Ben is teaching a virtual audience. How does he know who is sleeping, who is actively engaged, and most importantly, who is actually learning? Anyone, anyone?

In this session you will learn how to keep your learners awake, engaged, and learning by adding interactive activities to your Wimba sessions.

Thanksgiving Videos at Connelly Library

The Connelly Library's Audiovisual Department staff have put together a list of videos to get you in the Thanksgiving spirit. All of these videos are available in the AV department on the lower level of Connelly Library. Please contact us at 215.951.1295 with questions or video suggestions.

The Ice Storm (1997) “It is Thanksgiving, 1973, and the climate is changing, politically and physically. As the Watergate scandal unfolds in the background, the inhabitants of New Canaan, Connecticut begin to slip into an existentialist void, wherein social taboos are shattered on whims and the line between adult authority and juvenile irresponsibility is practically non-existent. Focusing on two families in particular, the Hoods and the Carvers, "The Ice Storm" chronicles a brief period of rapid moral deterioration, as the characters shatter their social "roles" in pursuit of meaning and satisfaction, within an environment turned inwards on itself.” (review from IMDB.com)

The Last Waltz (1978) “The Band, one of rock's superstar groups, decided to call it quits after sixteen grueling years on the road. The group held this farewell concert on Thanksgiving Day, 1976, at San Francisco’s Winterland, the site of their first performance.” (review from the Connelly catalog)

Pieces of April (2003) “Family outcast April lives in a beat-up apartment in New York's Lower East Side with her boyfriend, Bobby. In order to spend some time with her dying mother, April invites her conservative suburban family to her place for a Thanksgiving feast. While she frantically tries to complete the meal, the family drives in from Pennsylvania sharing less-than-pleasant opinions about April's lifestyle. Her dad tries to think positively, while sister Beth flaunts her good-girl status and brother Timmy captures it all on film.” (review from the Connelly catalog)

What's Cooking? (2000) “In LA's Fairfax district, four households celebrate Thanksgiving amidst family tensions. In the Nguyen family, the children’s acculturation and immigrant parents' fears collide. In the Avila family, Isabel’s son has invited her estranged husband to their family dinner. Audrey and Ron Williams want to keep their own family's ruptures secret from Ron's visiting mother. In the Seelig household, Herb and Ruth are unwilling to discuss openly their grown daughter's living with her lover, Carla. Around each table, things come to a head.” (review from IMDB.com)

Bart vs. Thanksgiving (The Simpsons: Season Two Episode 7) (1990) “On Thanksgiving, Bart learns about the meaning of the holiday when he runs away from home (after getting into a fight), then shares a turkey dinner with homeless people at a soup kitchen.” (review from IMDB.com)

Philadelphia, PA 19141

Dear La Salle University Students, Staff, and Faculty:

We’d like to thank you for your support of the November 8 and 9 American Red Cross blood drives at La Salle University. Because of your generosity of time and talent, we were able to collect blood needed to help many members of our community.

At a time when blood supplies are low, many valuable units were collected for our hospital patients. Over a two-day span we saw almost 250 members of the La Salle University donate blood. We were able to collect approximately 200 units of blood helping to save 600 lives across our region. We also had 49 first-time donors. Due to your outstanding efforts, many hospital patients will benefit from the blood collected at your blood drive.

I’d like to thank all of you for your support and generous contribution of time and talent towards your blood drives. It is you that make it successful!

Thank you again for all that you do. I wish you the best of luck and every success in your Spring 2012 blood drive.

Sincerely,

The American Red Cross

Assistant Professor in Business Law

The School of Business at La Salle University seeks applications for two open rank, tenure-track faculty positions in Business Law effective August 2012. The successful candidates will join the 10-member Management & Leadership Department at the Philadelphia, PA campus. The Business Law faculty members teach a range of courses on the legal environment of business and business ethics in the undergraduate and MBA programs.

Qualified candidates will have an excellent academic record, including a Juris Doctor or a Ph.D. in a related field. The candidate will have passed the bar and holds a current license to practice. Desired qualifications include a strong commitment to outstanding teaching and the pursuit of a thoughtful and ambitious research agenda. Accordingly, the most competitive candidates will have superior prior teaching experience and a proven record of research and publication. Training or professional experience in the fields of ethics, legal environment of business, entrepreneurship or other disciplines relevant to the Department’s teaching and research missions will be viewed favorably.

Depending on the specific background and qualifications of the successful candidate, as well as the needs of the School of Business, teaching responsibilities will include some combination of law, business environment and business ethics courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels. The candidate appointed will be expected to develop a strong record of publication consistent with our AACSB accreditation.

Applicants should send electronically (1) a letter of application describing their teaching and research interests and experiences, (2) a current vita or resume, (3) evidence of teaching ability (such as summaries of student evaluations), (4) a representative sample of publications or a legal writing sample, and (5) the names and contact information for three references to the following:

Assistant Professor in Operations Management and/or Decision Sciences or a Related Field

One tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor rank available starting August 2012 to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in areas of operations management and decision sciences. Applicants with education or experience in business analytics are especially desired.

Ph.D. or DBA with specialization in Operations Management and/or Decision Sciences or a related field. ABDs nearing completion will be considered. The qualified candidate must show strong interest in teaching and student professional development, as well as research skills and potential consistent with AACSB standards.

The successful candidate is expected to teach a 3/3 load, conduct research leading to publication in refereed journals, and participate in Department, School and University service activities. The candidate will play a vital role in creating new course offerings and improving existing offerings. The mission of the School of Business at La Salle University is to offer educational programs that prepare students for a purposeful life by integrating Lasallian values with current business management skills. The successful candidate must be committed to a pedagogy that combines theory and practice. Fit with department, mission and vision is particularly important.

Interested candidates should send electronically (1) a letter of application describing their teaching and research interests and experiences, (2) a current vita or resume, (3) evidence of teaching ability (such as summaries of student evaluations), and (4) the names and contact information for three references to the following:
