Coming of Age: Who Are the Millennials and Where Are They Going?

Facilitated by Julianna Gwiszcz, MSW, Director, The Explorer Connection; Brendan Young, Senior Social Work Major; and Megan Marron, Senior Nursing Major

Wednesday, February 29, 3:00 p.m.
Holroyd Atrium. Free Food.

Who and what defines a generation? When does a generation reach its peak, the point at which its members are no longer the next best thing—the game changers? How would you define the Millennials (aka Gen Y: those born roughly between 1980 and 2000)? Will they soon be obsolete?

A 2010 Pew Center Research study, "Millennials: A Portrait of Generation Next", describes Millennials as "confident, self-expressive, liberal, upbeat and open to change." Yet not all accounts of this generation reflect such a favorable outlook. This cafe will explore the multi-generational and multi-cultural perspectives of the Millennials as a way to deconstruct what it means to be a part of a generation and the implications for future generations to come.

Explorer Cafés are every Wednesday at 3:00 p.m.
