Co-sponsored with the La Salle University Art Museum, the Multicultural and International Center, the South Asian Student Alliance, Connelly Library, and the Cross Cultural Association.

Drepung Monastery was founded in 1419 near Lhasa, the capital of Tibet. An important learning center for Tibetan Buddhism, it comprised many colleges, of which Gomang Dratsang specialized in philosophy, logic, and debate. In 1959, 10 years after the 1949 Communist Chinese invasion and occupation of Tibet, 100 monks followed His Holiness the Dalai Lama into exile in India. In 1969, survivors of that journey rebuilt the Drepung Gomang monastery in Mundgod, south India. Today it is the home of approximately 2,000 monks. Source: www.gomang.org/history.html

Shades of Faith: Being a Black Mormon

Come learn about the faith experiences of Black members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (commonly known as Mormons) in what many perceive as a predominately White church. Also discussed will be issues of acceptance, integration, interracial marriages, culture and how faith in the teachings of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints address these issues. The presentation will be panel style, with opportunity for the audience to participate in asking questions.

Panelists Include:

James Ayuen. James is from the Sudan and is one of the Lost Boys of Sudan. He received a B.A. from La Salle with a dual degree in Economics and Political Science in 2009.

Donte Holland. A member of La Salle’s Safety & Security force, he was born and raised in Philadelphia. He writes and performs Gospel Hip Hop music.

Kahalia & Dalyn Montgomery. Kahalia is from Atlanta and has a B.S. in Human Development and Family Studies. Dalyn is from Salt Lake City and is finishing a M.A. in Higher Education.

WHO AM I?

CLUE: "Here I am with my mother and older brother at Christmas. That was a long time ago, long before I came to La Salle. Here at La Salle, you might know me from my previous work with the Faculty Senate or my current work with Athletics. You might also recognize me since I'm the only woman in my department."

Do you know who this person is? Send the name along with your name to campusnews@lasalle.edu. [Her identity will be announced in the next issue.]

If you have a photo of yourself from the past and would like to be featured, please send it along with a clue to the above e-mail address or to Campus News, Box 187. All prints of photos will be scanned and returned.

Poetry in the Time of Protest: Do Words Have that Power?

Facilitated by James Mancinelli, MS CCC-SLP/L, Speech-Language-Hearing Science, School of Nursing and Health Sciences

Wednesday, April 4, 3:00 p.m. Holroyd Atrium. Free Food.

This café will invite participants to consider the role of poetry as a form of protest, especially in light of the Arab Spring and the Occupy Movement.

Has poetry played a role in social change? Can poetry play a role in social change?

Although he wasn't a poet, Socrates was considered an enemy of the state, paying the ultimate price for his words. Think Amiri Baraka who believes that poetry is a “weapon of action”; or Dennis Brutus a white South African who spent 16 months in Robben Island jail for his poems and actions against apartheid.....and other examples will be provided to facilitate the flow of conversation. Who knows what could happen?

Explorer Cafés are held every Wednesday at 3:00 p.m. in Holroyd.

Creating Student-Centered Instructional Design - A Matter of Style!

April 19, 2012
12:30 to 1:30 p.m.
Online in Wimba Classroom

Designing student-centered learning in an online course requires carefully blending the learning styles of the student with the teaching style of the instructor. In this short course we will explore the most common forms of adult learning styles and present proven techniques of instruction to ensure your course is engaging and stimulates critical thinking.

Sesquicentennial Anniversary Committee Meeting
December 8, 2011

Not in attendance: Kale Beers, Dominic Galante, Br. Joseph Grabenstein, Maggie McGuinness, Peg McManus, and Terry Travis

Brian Elderton opened the meeting at 12:36 p.m. with prayer.

The minutes were reviewed and accepted.

Brian announced that Jim Gulick, in his new role as Director, Athletic Development, and Trey Ulrich, who is now the Assistant Vice President for Alumni Relations, will represent Athletics and Recreation and Alumni Relations, respectively, on the Committee.

Subcommittee reports:

The Speaker/Event Subcommittee
Brian Elderton met with Maureen McCullough, Regional Director, Catholic Relief Services (CRS), for guidance on inviting the Executive Director, Dr. Carolyn Woo, to receive the Signum Fidei Award on behalf of Catholic Relief Services. A letter from Brother Michael to Dr. Woo inviting CRS and Dr. Woo to receive the award has been sent.

Ed Turzanski, Assistant Vice President for Government and Community Relations, is arranging for Mayor Michael Nutter’s participation in Convocation 2012 and working on inviting Ben Bernake to speak at the 2013 Economic Outlook. Surgeon General Regina Benjamin was vetted and approved by the Board of Trustees and an invitation letter is in process. An invitation letter, prepared by Br. Mike, was sent to Archbishop Chaput for the October 2012 Honors Convocation.

The Theme/Logo/Visual (T/L/V) Subcommittee
Joe Donovan, Brian Elderton and Julie Morrison met with Mike Diccicco, a former president of the Alumni Association Board and partner of Diccicco Battista Communications, to discuss engaging his firm to help with the 150th Anniversary promotions, and they reached an agreement.

The University’s Licensing Committee will contact approved vendors and begin the process of selecting and developing 150th anniversary products.

Julie reviewed the highlights of the 150th website and explained the features that will be added later, including links for submitting memories, Facebook, and Day of Service details. Br. Joe Grabenstein is preparing an “On This Day in La Salle’s History,” a retrospective of University events that occurred on each day of the year during the celebration, for the website. Photographs will accompany the events.

The Fun Subcommittee
The Student Activities Funding Board agreed to divert additional funds to the 2012-2013 academic year for student events that are anniversary related. The Flat Explorer is in production, will be submitted to the committee for final review, and published in La Salle Magazine. The Homecoming student dance was a test run for an alternative venue for student anniversary celebration. Using the tented tennis courts proved to be a good idea, and lessons learned will be implemented to create an even better experience.

During a Heritage Week Committee meeting, SGA student members suggested the University post semi-permanent congratulatory signs from the various student organizations. The Student’s Government Association is in communication with Physical Facilities and Athletics and Recreation to get estimates and other information. Anna Allen brought samples of The La Salle University Musical Theatre Retrospective Save the Date card.

The Day of Service Subcommittee
Forty-five local organizations have requested participation in the Day of Service. Seventeen have completed registration documents. Fifteen have said yes, but have yet to submit the registration materials. Four hundred alums and students have expressed interest in volunteering for Day of Service and more are expected. Currently, three service projects are planned and include a local parish and a women’s shelter. Philadelphia, Bucks, Montgomery, Delaware and Chester Counties; South Jersey; Washington, DC; New York, NY; St. Louis, MO; Chicago, IL; San Francisco, CA; Tampa, FL; Fort Lauderdale, FL and Boston, MA have site leaders. Additional sites are welcome and opportunities for Study Abroad students are pending.

The meeting adjourned at 1:18 p.m.

Subject: A10 SAAC Video Competition

We need YOU to vote for La Salle's Video in A10 SAAC Video Competition (on or before April 1)

The Atlantic 10 Conference Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) "Anti-Bullying" Video Competition is under way with eleven institutions entering videos in this year's competition. This is the second year that the A-10 SAAC has conducted this "friendly" video competition, where the winner is determined by a combination of an online fan vote, as well as a vote conducted by each institution's campus SAAC organization. The La Salle University Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has submitted a video (thanks to Cameron Cabrera and others) and we need you to vote for our video.

The guidelines for the competition are intentionally broad to provide maximum flexibility in the video submissions. Campus SAAC organizations that entered this year's competition have taken advantage of the incredible opportunity to raise awareness of bullying, through their creative and powerful messages.

The online vote will be open and conducted Friday, March 23 through Sunday, April 1. The campus SAAC votes will also be due on the final day of the online voting (Sunday, April 1), with the winner being announced on Tuesday, April 3.
