April Health Tip:

Sun Safety Tips:

- When possible, avoid outdoor activities during the hours between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., when the sun’s rays are the strongest.
- Always wear a broad-spectrum (protection against both UVA and UVB) sunscreen with a Sun Protection Factor (SPF) of 15 or higher.
- Be sure to reapply sunscreen frequently, especially after swimming.
- To protect your eyes from sun damage, wear sunglasses that block 99 to 100-percent of UVA and UVB radiation.
- Consider wearing cosmetics and lip protectors with an SPF of at least 15 to protect your skin year-round.
- Wear a hat with a 4-inch brim all around.

Exposure to the sun causes:

- Pre-cancerous (actinic keratosis) and cancerous (basal cell carcinoma, squamous cell carcinoma, and melanoma) skin lesions
- Benign tumors
- Fine and coarse wrinkles
- Freckles
- Discolored areas of the skin, called mottled pigmentation
- A yellow discoloration of the skin

Creating Student-Centered Instructional Design - A Matter of Style!

April 19, 2012
12:30 to 1:30 p.m.
Online in Wimba Classroom

Designing student-centered learning in an online course requires carefully blending the learning styles of the student with the teaching style of the instructor. In this short course we will explore the most common forms of adult learning styles and present proven techniques of instruction to ensure your course is engaging and stimulates critical thinking.

Friday, April 13
Our colleagues,

Jacob Bennett and Liz Langemak,

will read from their poetry

on

Monday, April 16, at 1 p.m.

in

the Renaissance Room of the La Salle University Art Museum.

This reading is sponsored by the Graduate Program in English, the Department of English, and the Office of the Dean of Arts and Sciences.

All members of the university community are invited.

Professor Jacob A. Bennett is Instructor in the Department of English at La Salle. He holds a B.A. from Wesleyan University, an MFA from Goddard College, and a TEFL Certificate from the Caledonian School in Prague. His publications have appeared in Unlikely Stories, Pocket Smut, The Critical Flame, Certain Circuits, Consequence, The Fifth Estate, and elsewhere.

Dr. Elizabeth Langemak is Assistant Professor of English at La Salle. She holds a B.A. from St. Norbert’s College, an MA in Creative Writing from Boston University, an M.A. in American Literature from the University of Missouri, and a Ph.D. with specialization in Creative Writing and American Literature from the University of Missouri. She has published widely in Four and Twenty, Painted Bride Quarterly, The American Literary Review, Literary Imagination, Cellpoems, The Beloit Poetry Journal, The Spoon River Poetry Review, The California Quarterly, and elsewhere. She has held writing residencies at ArtSmith Studios, Vermont Studio Center, and Writers in the Hinterland.
And the winners are ...

Come to the Union Ballroom on Wednesday, April 18, 2012, at 6:30 p.m., and lend your support and give recognition to some of the best of the 2012 graduates. A light reception will follow. Feel free to invite family and friends.

Video Recommendations from Connelly Library

This month’s recommendations include some newer films as well as a few classics. Visit us in the AV department on the lower level of Connelly Library or see our new guide to the AV department at http://guides.lasalle.edu/audiovisual. (All plot summaries are from the Connelly Library catalog.)

Amreeka - 2009
Cast: Nsreen Faour, Melkar Mualllem, Hiam Abbass, Alia Shawkat, Joseph Ziegler, Yussef Abu Warda
“Muna Farah (Faour), a Palestinian single mom, struggles to maintain her optimistic spirit in the daily grind of intimidating West Bank checkpoints, the constant nagging of a controlling mother, and the haunting shadows of a failed marriage. Everything changes one day when she receives a letter informing her that her family has been granted a U.S. green card, and she moves with her teenage son to small town Illinois.”

Elevator to the Gallows - 1957 (France)
Cast: Jeanne Moreau, Maurice Ronet, Georges Poujouly, Yori Bertin, Jean Wall, Lino Ventura, Ivan Petrovich, Felix Marten, Elga Andersen, Gerard Darrieu
“Julien Tavernier (Ronet), a decorated ex-paratroop officer who served in Indochina, falls in love with his boss’s wife Florence (Moreau). They plan the murder of her husband and make it look like suicide. But after the murder, through bad luck and coincidence, Julien is charged with two other murders he did not commit.”

Hugo - 2011
Cast: Ben Kingsley, Sacha Baron Cohen, Asa Butterfield, Chloe Grace Moretz, Ray Winstone, Emily Mortimer, Christopher Lee
“Hugo is a lonely, melancholic orphan who, in the early 1930s, tends all the clocks in a Parisian train station, where, living alone deep in the station’s interior, in a dark, dusty secret apartment that was built for employees, he putsters and sleeps, and naturally dreams mostly of fixing a delicate automaton that his dead father, a clockmaker, found once upon a time. The automaton is all that remains of a happy past. With wit and resourcefulness Hugo discovers the secret left by his father that unlocks a mystery that transforms his own life and that of the lives of those around him.”

New Orleans or Rhapsody in Black and Blue - 1947
Cast: Arturo de Cordova, Dorothy Patrick, Louis Armstrong and his band, Billie Holiday, Woody Herman and his orchestra
“Nick (Cordova), the proprietor of a Bourbon Street gambling joint, an artistic haven for African-American musicians who gather and jam from dusk til dawn, falls in love with an opera-singing socialite (Patrick). After losing his nightclub Nick tries over the course of many years to get jazz the respect and audience it deserves.”

The Talented Mr. Ripley - 1999
Cast: Matt Damon, Gwyneth Paltrow, Jude Law
“Manhattan lavatory attendant Tom Ripley (Damon) borrows a Princeton jacket to play piano at a garden party. When the wealthy father of a recent Princeton grad chats Tom up, Tom pretends to know the son and is soon offered $1,000 to go to Italy to convince Dickie Greenleaf (Law) to return home. In Italy, Tom attaches himself to Dickie and to Marge (Paltrow), Dickie’s cultured fiancé, pretending to love jazz and harboring homoerotic hopes as he soaks in luxury. Besides lying, Tom’s talents include impressions and forgery, so when the handsome and confident Dickie tires of Tom, dismissing him as a bore, Tom murders him and attempts to make Greenleaf’s privileges his own.”
