Shades of Faith: Being a Black Mormon

Come learn about the faith experiences of Black members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (commonly known as Mormons) in what many perceive as a predominately White church. Also discussed will be issues of acceptance, integration, interracial marriages, culture and how faith in the teachings of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints address these issues. The presentation will be panel style, with opportunity for the audience to participate in asking questions.

Tues., April 3
12:30-2 p.m.
Holroyd 190

Refreshments Provided.

Sponsored by
The Explorer Connection.

Panelist Include:
James Ayuen. James is from the Sudan and is one of the Lost Boys of Sudan. He received a B.A. from La Salle with a dual degree in Economics and Political Science in 2009.
Donte Holland. A member of La Salle’s Safety & Security force, he was born and raised in Philadelphia. He writes and performs Gospel Hip Hop music.
Kahalia & Dalyn Montgomery. Kahalia is from Atlanta and has a B.S. in Human Development and Family Studies. Dalyn is from Salt Lake City and is finishing a M.A. in Higher Education.