Meeting the Icon: Meditation, Practice, Contemplation

Featuring Lynette Hull
Tuesday, Oct. 28, 2014
12:30–1:45 p.m.
Holroyd Hall Atrium

Lynette Hull has worked in roles as diverse as founder of a restaurant and clothing boutique, interior designer, K–8 curriculum developer, and homeschooling mother of three children. When a chance encounter led her to a weeklong workshop in Byzantine iconography, Hull knew she had found her final métier. She has studied Byzantine iconography since 2004 with master iconographer Vladislav Andreyev, founder of the Prosopon School of Iconology and Iconography. Currently, she runs an open studio for use by regional iconographers and has hosted international iconography tours and conferences. Hull has lectured on iconography at numerous institutions, including Princeton University, Cambridge University, the University of Toronto, and her alma mater, Wheaton College. In addition, she has written and produced a history of the Prosopon School, titled Locating Prosopon. She lives in Princeton, N.J., with her husband. Her TEDx talk, “Re-creation of the Icon,” is available online at www.youtube.com/watch?v=JET4H5MhQRw.
