2022-23 Financial Aid Budget Appeal (Fall/Spring)

Student's name: _____ La Salle University ID#: _____

According to Federal Regulations, one of the components used to calculate your financial aid is the standard cost of attendance budget. The budget is comprised of average expenses for a student during the nine month academic year. If a student has extraordinary educational expenses, then a student may do an appeal to have those expenses considered. Please complete the form below and submit it along with the required documentation. Only the items below will be considered as valued education expenses. Charges for internet/cable/telephone/utilities are not allowable educational charges as determined by the Department of Education.

Supporting documentation must be submitted for all categories. This includes, but is not limited to mortgage statement or signed lease, receipts, mileage documentation (GoogleMap, MapQuest, letter stating how often you travel), etc. This appeal will not be reviewed until all required documentation has been received.
