Course Withdrawal Consideration: For students whose cumulative completion rate already meets or exceeds the University's required 67% completion rate, a course withdrawal may be considered on a case-by-case basis without automatically resulting in a violation of this Academic Improvement Plan.

When evaluating a withdrawal request, consideration will be given to the student's ability to achieve the advisor-recommended semester GPA and remain on track toward degree completion. Students must consult with their academic advisor and the Office of Student Financial Services before withdrawing from a course, as a withdrawal may still affect SAP eligibility and financial aid.

Academic Performance Requirements:

To remain eligible under this Academic Improvement Plan, the student must:

- Successfully complete the coursework identified in this Academic Improvement Plan, unless otherwise approved by the Office of Student Financial Services.
- Earn the minimum semester GPA established by the academic advisor for each semester covered by this plan.
- Continue making measurable academic progress toward degree completion.
- Meet all other applicable Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards.
