

2021-2022 The Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation Scholarships for Mature Students

Established 1981

The Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation is an independent foundation formed under the will of Charlotte W. Newcombe, a Philadelphia philanthropist, to provide scholarships to mature students who are pursuing their first Bachelor's degree. These scholarships are available for partial tuition expenses.

REQUIREMENTS

1. Enrollment as a Bachelor degree candidate at La Salle University for a minimum of six (6) credits during the term when the scholarship will be used.
2. Enrollment for a minimum of six (6) credits at La Salle University for at least one (1) semester prior to the term when the scholarship will be used.
3. Minimum cumulative GPA of 2.50.
4. Academic level – undergraduate students with a minimum of sixty (60) credits completed by the term when scholarship will be used.
5. Age – at least twenty-five (25) years old.
6. Demonstrated financial need through completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).
7. Application priority deadline is August 21, 2021. Consideration will begin after the add/drop period of the semester, and recipients will be notified via email as soon as decisions are made.

The selection committee will be composed of representatives from Financial Aid, the College of Professional and Continuing Studies, and the Nursing program. Priority will be given to first-time Bachelor degree candidates. Depending on the amount of funding available and the eligible applicant pool, awards will be made on a semester basis. If a student is selected as a recipient for fall semester, but fails to enroll for at least six credits in the spring, or if her GPA falls below a 2.50 at the end of the fall semester, there will be no award for the spring semester. The committee will give special consideration to the life circumstances and family responsibilities of mature women students.
